Bovril is part of Britain

Bovril is now a feature of the British scene, as permanently and naturally there as flower shows, fairs, and cricket on the village green. How did it manage to achieve this position?

Through trust: by living up to its promises for over 70 years. When you add Bovril to cooked dishes you expect it to liven up the flavour—and it does. When you spread it on sandwiches, you expect it to taste delicious—and it does. When you drink hot Bovril you expect it to warm you up, stimulate you, nourish you, and generally make you feel better—and it does!

That's why Bovril fills a warm and cheerful corner in people's hearts: that's why it is, and will continue to be, a part of the British way of life.

THE COLONEL OF THE REGIMENT

On January 6 the Colonel of the Regiment and Lady Denning sailed from Southampton in the S.S. "Canton" for Singapore, where they arrived at the end of January. The General and Lady Denning spent the first days of February with the 1st Battalion at Fort George, Malacca, where they had a most enjoyable and interesting time. They found the 1st Battalion in great heart and cannot speak too enthusiastically of the welcome they received and the spirit of all ranks and the families of the Battalion. After their visit to Malacca the General and Lady Denning spent the next few weeks in a very interesting but somewhat strenuous tour of service units and S.S.A.F.A. organisations in Malaya. This included a short visit to Hong Kong, where they met members of the Regiment serving with the Garrison there.

The Colonel of the Regiment and Lady Denning left Singapore on February 23 in H.M.T. "Nevasa" and after a pleasant voyage arrived back in this country on March 16.

On the occasion of the amalgamation of the 5th Bn. The Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.) and the 1st Bn. The Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.), which occurred on April 1, the Colonel of the Regiment and the Associate Colonel sent the following message to Lt.-Col. C. Simmons, the Commanding Officer:

"On the occasion of the amalgamation of Fifth Bedfordshire Regiment and First Hertfordshire Regiment all ranks Third East Anglian Regiment send you their greetings and welcome the new Battalion into the Regiment of which it will form an integral part. Brigadier Paton and I are fully confident that the Battalion under your command will most worthily uphold the fine traditions of the former Regiments.

DENNING, Colonel.
PATON, Associate Colonel."

We are sorry to hear of Mrs. Paton's accident. She fell and dislocated a shoulder, which has been very painful. We were glad to hear from the Associate Colonel that she is making good progress and we hope she will soon be quite well again.

THE REGIMENTAL CHAPEL

The regular services, which are held on the first Sunday in each month, have continued and are well supported. In addition to the support given by the congregations we have been much encouraged by the assistance given by the officiating Clergy. In October the service was taken by the Rev. F. A. Preston, M.B.E., M.A., and in February by the Rev. R. L. Parsonage, C.F., both of whom were former Garrison Chaplains at Warley. The Chaplain's Department has continued its valuable help by providing Chaplains for the monthly services. Others to whom we owe our thanks are Padre K. A. Vine, who has officiated on several occasions and Padre G. A. W. Gold, G. Johnson and R. R. Lewis.

On November 27, 1960, a special Thanksgiving Service to commemorate the Centenary of the Army Cadet Force was arranged for the 3rd Essex Cadet Regiment. Major-General D. E. B. Talbot, C.B., C.B.E., D.S.O., M.C., the District Commander, attended the service and inspected the parade commanded by Major D. G. Mullis.

On February 5, 1961, the monthly service took the form of a Service of Remembrance for the Royal Army Service Corps (T.A.) in Essex. It was organised by Major W. A. Matthews of the 54th East Anglian Infantry Divisional Column R.A.S.C. (T.A.). The service on March 5, 1961, was a "Gaza" Day Remembrance Service arranged by the C.O. of 459 (Essex) H.A.A. Regiment R.A. (T.A.) for members of that Regiment and former members of the 6th and 7th Battalions The Essex Regiment. On this occasion Her Majesty's Lieutenant for Essex, Col. Sir John Ruggles-Brise, B.T., C.B., O.B.E., T.D., J.P., attended in his capacity as Honorary Colonel of 459 Regiment R.A. (T.A.) and took the salute at the march past which was held after the service. The Associate Colonel, Brigadier C. M. Paton, C.V.O., C.B.E., D.L., accompanied the Lord Lieutenant on his inspection of the parade and at the saluting base during the March Past. Some seventy serving members and about the same number of Old Comrades attended the service and parade.

MEMORIAL SERVICE LT.-COL. A. E. MAITLAND, D.S.O., M.C.

On Sunday, February 19, a Memorial Service for Lt.-Col. Maitland was held in the Regimental Chapel, and was attended by Mrs Dorothy Maitland, his widow, and several members of his family. Many former officers and members of The Essex Regiment were also present, including two former Colonels of The Regiment, Lieut.-General Sir Geoffrey W. Howard, K.C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., D.L., and Brigadier C. M. Paton, C.V.O., C.B.E., D.L.

The service was conducted by the Rev. J. M. Pickering, M.B.E., Senior Chaplain to the Forces, East Anglian District. Lt.-Col. Maidland had expressed his wish that his ashes should be scattered in the garden of the former Depot Officers' Mess and this was carried out by the Rev. Pickering in a simple but moving ceremony during the service.

THE (16th FOOT) REGIMENT MUSEUM

The Museum of The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment is still situated in Kempston Barracks, Bedford. During the absence of Lt.-Col. Fanning, the Hon. Curator, owing to illness, it is being looked after by Major Tewkesbury, Secretary, The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment Association.

Negotiations for its future housing are still in progress and will be announced as soon as they are finalised.

THE ESSEX REGIMENT MUSEUM

With the move of Regimental Headquarters to the former Depot Officers' Mess, the Regimental Museum has also been moved and is arranged in three rooms on the upper floor of the R.H.Q. building. It is now open to visitors.

Since the last number of the Journal several presentations have been gratefully received by the Curator, Major Stead, Secretary, The Essex Regiment Association. These include the medals of the late Brigadiers L. O. W. Jones, D.S.O., and R. J. Tudwey, C.B., D.S.O., and also the medals of Mr. A. J. Long, M.M., who lives at Manor Park, Essex. Lt.-Col. A. C. Halahan, O.B.E., has kindly given a 44th Foot Belt Buckle, which was worn by his father.

A map of the Battle of Preston Pans 1745, the first action in which the 44th Foot took part, has been purchased for the Museum.

RECRUITING

The situation in regard to the recruiting of regulars for the Armed Forces of the Crown has been discussed in Parliament, on TV and B.B.C. programmes and has also received much publicity in the Press. Those who have read or listened to the discussions and reports will realise that the situation is serious, in fact very serious. The Secretary of State for War has stated that as far as the Army is concerned he is optimistic that the required number of recruits will be obtained by the end of 1962, when the last National Servicemen leave and it is to be hoped he is right.

Regimental Recruiting is now one of the responsibilities of Regimental Headquarters and the position we have to report is not a happy one. In order that the 1st Battalion shall be at a proper strength at the end of 1962 and be able to find sufficient men for extra-regimental employment it is necessary that an average of twenty-three regular recruits be enlisted for the Regiment each month. During the first three months of this year the average has been thirteen, a long way short.

It will be asked what is being done to correct this position. Since the early part of last year an officer from the Battalion has been attached to R.H.Q. as Regimental Recruiting Officer. His job is to supervise, in co-operation with the Regimental Secretary, all regimental recruiting activities and to maintain liaison with the Army Information Officers and Recruiting Organisation within the Regimental area. To assist him, the 1st Battalion have lent two Sergeants, known as Special Recruiters. Their job is to provide a link with the Army Recruiting Organisation, and normally they work with the Army Information Offices at Southend and St. Albans respectively. In addition, this year, the C.O. of the 1st Battalion has sent home three Corporals to work with the Regimental Recruiting Officer.

A Regimental display, consisting of photographs, objects of Regimental interest, etc., has been formed, and this will appear at various county shows, fetes, carnivals, throughout the three counties this summer. In addition, Regimental recruiting posters have been prepared and printed, and the Regimental Recruiting Team see that these are displayed wherever a site can be obtained. That their efforts are successful is exemplified by the fact that recently there were over 60 Regimental recruiting posters displayed in central Essex alone.

A Regimental brochure has been printed, and also a special Regimental reply-paid enquiry card. These are distributed in the attractive Army brochure, "The Soldiers of The Queen" and in "Soldier Magazine," and in all kinds of places such as post offices, barbers' shops, labour exchanges, etc. One magazine was left in a telephone booth at Maldon and evoked an enquiry from Dagenham!

The Regimental Recruiting Team seize every opportunity of addressing members of the Army Cadet Force, schools, scouts, etc. Both the T.A. Battalions, in spite of their own recruiting problems, have proved most helpful and co-operative.

Since the beginning of 1960, our best recruiting areas have been Watford, St. Albans area, Luton and district, Metropolitan Essex. It is comforting to know that the East Anglian Brigade Depot has one of the lowest "buying-out" rates in the Army. In spite of all our difficulties, we have not lowered our standard, and it is not every applicant who is accepted for "The Pompadours."

It is hoped that this has given you a picture of the Regimental Recruiting position today, and it may well now be asked "Can I help?" Yes, please spread the word in any way you can. Should you meet anyone who is interested in joining The Regiment, please send us his name and address, and we will, at once, contact him. For those who live in the Regimental counties and would be prepared to display a Regimental recruiting poster, we shall be delighted to send you one, small or large. Reply-paid enquiry cards are also available if you would like a supply.

But, above all, may we have your help and interest. If all members of The Regiment, past and present, do their best, we feel that when the end of 1962 comes, the Battalion will have received the necessary number of regular recruits to enable it to continue to play its proper role in the Army and to maintain the splendid reputation it has gained since it was formed in 1958. With such splendid forebears as The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment and The Essex Regiment, we feel, with the right encouragement, the young men of Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire and Essex will not be backwards in coming forth to serve in "The Pompadours."

REGIMENTAL EXHIBITION

By arrangement with the Chief Recruiting Officer for London District, the brothers Lungley and Leslie Powe, joint managing directors of Hector Powe, have been showing collections of Regimental treasures in the windows of their Regent Street and Queen Victoria Street branches since May 2, 1960. The exhibitions were confined to Regiments recruiting from the London area and among those Regiments taking part were The Household Cavalry, The Household Brigade, The Royal Regiment of Artillery, The Queen's Royal Surrey Regiment, The Green Jackets Brigade, The Middlesex Regiment, etc.

The Regiment held an exhibition in the Regent Street branch from November 21, 1960, to December 3, 1960.

The object of these displays was to give Londoners an opportunity to see many rare and interesting regimental treasures normally held at Regimental Depots and Museums and which are only brought out on special occasions. At the same time they have provided an opportunity for the Regiments concerned to get across to the public a glimpse of their glorious histories, and it is hoped that recruiting will benefit.

It was decided, in view of the great interest shown in these displays, to invite the Regiments to bring their exhibits to the Victory Hall of the Victory Ex-Services Club, Seymour Street, London, W.2., on May 3, 1961, for a combined display. This provided a unique opportunity for members of the Regiments, with their families, and senior officers from the War Office, to view the whole collection under one roof. It is believed this is the first time that an exhibition of this nature has ever been held.

The exhibition was opened by the Rt Hon. John Profumo, M.P., Secretary of State for War, at 12 noon on Wednesday, May 3. The opening ceremony was attended by Brigadier and Mrs C. M. Poton, the Regimental Secretary, Lt.-Col A. C. Young, and Lt.-Col and Mrs. A. G. R. Noble, from the East Anglian Brigade Depot. Sgt. Bennett and Cpl. Johnson, of the Regimental Recruiting Staff were in charge of the Regiment's display.

Among the objects exhibited by The Regiment were full dress tunics, pre-1914, of The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment and The Essex Regiment, the 56th Foot Centre-piece, shakos of the period circa 1860, V.C. and medals of the late Brigadier C. C. Foss, 16th Foot, and of Sgt. McWheeney, 44th Foot, replica of the Keyes of Gibraltar, 56th Foot, the Coconut, 16th Foot, etc.

THE 3RD EAST ANGLIAN REGIMENT (16TH/44TH FOOT) DINNER CLUB

The third dinner of the 3rd East Anglian Regiment (16th/44th Foot) Dinner Club took place at the United Service Club, Pall Mall, London, on Friday, April 28, 1961. Seventy-five Officers and guests attended.

Lieut.-General Sir Reginald F. S. Denning, K.B.E., C.B., D.L., Colonel of The Regiment, presided and the guests of honour were Col. Sir John A. Ruggles-Bribe, B.T., C.B., O.B.E., T.D., J.P., H.M. Lieutenant for Essex, Major S. Whitbread, J.P., H.M. Lieutenant for Bedfordshire, the Very Rev. G. E. Gordon, M.A., The Provost of Chelmsford, Col. G. V. Martin, M.C., The East Anglian Brigade Colonel, and Dr. A. W. Flagger who for twelve years was Medical Officer of The Depot, The Essex Regiment and later Depot, The 3rd East Anglian Regiment until the latter's disbandment, on April 1, 1960.

Gracious messages were received from Her Majesty The Queen and Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment, in reply to messages of loyal greetings which had been sent by the Colonel of the Regiment on behalf of those dining. These were read out at the dinner and were as follows :

"From Her Majesty The Queen, Windsor Castle.

Please convey my warm thanks to all members of The Third East Anglian Regiment (16th/44th Foot) Dinner Club for their warm and loyal greetings which I have received with great pleasure.

"From Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, Colonel-in-Chief, H.M. Yacht "Britannia."

Please convey to the members of the Third East Anglian Regiment (16th/44th Foot) Dinner Club my sincere thanks for their loyal message on the occasion of their Annual Dinner.

ELIZABETH R., Colonel-in-Chief."

The following message was received from the Officers of the 1st Battalion :—

"From Commanding Officer and Officers The Pompadours. Best wishes to General Denning and Officers dining on Friday. Look forward to being with you next year."

During the Dinner a reply, as follows, was sent by the Colonel and Associate Colonel :—

"All at Regimental Dinner thank you for your message and have been greatly pleased to hear of all the splendid achievements of the Battalion. With all good wishes.

DENNING/PATON"

After proposing the loyal toasts, General Sir Reginald Denning welcomed the guests and thanked them for the help they had given and were giving to the Regiment. He then gave a most satisfactory account of the achievements of the Battalion in Malacca which he had very recently visited, and spoke of the progress made in the T.A. Regiments. Before proposing the toast of The Regiment he called upon Brigadier C. M. Paton, C.V.O., C.B.E., D.L., Associate Colonel of The Regiment, who spoke on the need for everyone to encourage the recruiting of regular soldiers to keep the Battalion up to strength, and finally thanked the Colonel of The Regiment on behalf of all present for all he had done and was doing for the Regiment.

The rest of the evening was spent informally renewing old acquaintances, making new ones and exchanging reminiscences from the past.

THE ARMY BENEVOLENT FUND

This year sees the launching of its first public appeal by The Army Benevolent Fund. The reason for this is a change of policy regarding the administration of the Fund.

Set up in 1945 The Army Benevolent Fund began with a capital of £7 million, money accumulated from the profits of Service Clubs, overseas and similar sources. The directive to the original Trustees was that the capital should be run down by 1970, by which date it was thought the purposes of the Fund would have been fulfilled. In 1958 a committee set up to consider the future of the Fund pointed out that cases of hardship were still occurring among survivors and the dependants of those who fought in the Boer War.

The Trustees are now working on the assumption that the Fund will be required at least until 2000. Therefore, in future, reliance is to be placed upon the interest of the Fund's invested capital, about £100,000 per annum, augmented by public subscriptions. Until public subscriptions have been built up this policy will mean a sharp drop in the support given by the Fund to Regimental and Corps Benevolent Funds, which in the past have received grants up to £300,000 per annum.

Since its inception The Army Benevolent Fund has distributed £4½ million, of which £1,600,000 has been given to Regimental and Corps Benevolent Funds.

The appeal is to be spread over two years, 1961 and 1962.

The aims in 1961 are:—

- (a) To replace the ignorance which, understandably, exists in the Army of the purposes of the Fund.
- (b) To get the Army itself interested, enthusiastic and geared to money raising.
- (c) To get the T.A. actively co-operative.
- (d) To get the co-operation and backing of Regimental and Corps Associations.

The aims in 1962 are:—

- (a) To get the support of the general public and industry.
- (b) To consolidate the position in the Army.

The Appeal was launched during the week June 4-11, 1961, with the following activities:—

A Service of Dedication at the Chapel of The Royal Hospital, Chelsea, Sunday, June 4, 1961, at which the Colonel of The Regiment was represented by the Regimental Secretary. The Service was televised by the B.B.C.

The Service was followed by a "D" Day Anniversary Concert in the Royal Festival Theatre by the Band of The Royal Military College of Music. On June 11 the subject of the B.B.C.'s "Week's Good Cause" was The Army Benevolent Fund and the appeal was made by Lt.-General Sir Brian Horrocks.

The Regiment is supporting the appeal and will be sending a donation and it is hoped that all members, when the opportunity occurs, will support this very worthy appeal.

The Benevolent Funds of both the former Regiments' Benevolent Funds have received grants from The Army Benevolent Fund this year, as they have done in the years gone by.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR EMPLOYMENT OF REGULAR SAILORS, SOLDIERS AND AIRMEN

During 1960 the number of men and women from the Regular Armed Forces of the Crown placed in employment by the National Association for Employment of Regular Sailors, Soldiers and Airmen was 18,411, which was 86½% of those who registered at one or other of the Association's 52 Branches covering the whole of the United Kingdom. It is of interest that of this number, 7,639 were from the Army, and of these 17 were from The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment and 15 from The Essex Regiment.

If, when you get home, you have forgotten, lost or have never been told the address of your Area Jobfinder, apply at any big Post Office or to your Regimental Association. They'll be able to give it to you.

Both the Regimental Associations make an annual subscription to the Regular Forces Employment Association. Further information regarding the N.A.E.R.S.A. can be obtained from the Regimental Secretary and/or the Secretary, The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment Association, Kempston Barracks, Bedford; The Secretary, The Essex Regiment Association, Warley Barracks, Brentwood, Essex.

The Annual General Meeting of the National Association for Employment of Regular Sailors, Soldiers and Airmen held at Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, on May 5, was attended by the Regimental Secretary and the Secretaries of The Regimental Associations.

The following ex-members of The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment and The Essex Regiment have obtained employment through the National Association since the last publication of The Regimental Journal.

ROYAL UNITED SERVICE INSTITUTION

WHITEHALL, LONDON, S.W.1

Telephone: Whitehall 5854.

Founded in 1831, the Institution is situated in Whitehall, almost opposite the Horse Guards. It has as its Royal Charter "the promotion and advancement of science and literature of the Services," and thus is liberally interpreted for the benefit of members.

There is a library which, in its special field, is second to none. The latest books of any importance on every aspect of the conduct of war are available, together with some rare old editions long since out of print. Geography, history, politics, biographies, economics, psychology, science, and a proportion of fiction—particularly novels dealing with the psychological side of war—are also included. The more important books from the United States on nuclear strategy and tactics are purchased direct and members do not have to await the English edition, if any. Students of military history have access to valuable material not easily obtainable elsewhere. All except the usual reference books and rare works are in the lending section and members may borrow four volumes at a time by post or personal collection.

For those members who are able to visit the library, and the advantage of this cannot be over-emphasised, there are excellent facilities for modern studies. These are housed in a comfortable reading and writing room, where all the important Service journals of the British Commonwealth and the United States, leading world journals on current affairs, and main British dailies and weeklies are displayed. The library aims to be a focal point of information and this is achieved by up-to-date files of Press cuttings and a classified index to periodicals and journals. The librarian is ready to advise on reading and the best way to use the full resources of the library and will, provided due notice is given, prepare bibliographies.

Lectures by leading authorities are given during the winter months on subjects of interest to all three Services. Members take part in the open discussions that follow and they may in most cases bring two personal guests. The proceedings are published in the Institution's quarterly Journal, together with articles on current or historical interest and sections devoted to Service notes, correspondence, book reviews, latest additions to the library and recommended articles in current journals. A free copy is sent to all members.

Among other facilities offered to members and their friends are free admission to the Royal United Service Museum in the former Banqueting House of old Whitehall Palace and excellent opportunities for viewing processions passing along Whitehall.

NAVY, ARMY AND AIR FORCE INSTITUTE'S FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Nearly £122,000,000 has been shared by Unit and Welfare Funds of the three Services and individual customers as a result of buying from N.A.A.F.I. which, this year, celebrates its 40th anniversary. This is the amount of hard cash which has been paid out in rebates, discounts and dividends.

N.A.A.F.I. began operations on January 1, 1921, on the recommendation of two Government Committees set up to consider the administration of Service canteens and shops, based on the lessons learned in the First World War. The profit sharing principle was introduced whereby N.A.A.F.I. distributed its trading surpluses for the benefit of the Services—and this has continued ever since.

Although its scale of operations has fallen since the peak years of the Second World War, N.A.A.F.I. is still in business in a big way, with an annual trade of some £57,000,000, a staff of 23,000 and 2,000 establishments situated throughout the world, wherever British Forces are serving.

To mark the anniversary a new long service award has been inaugurated for N.A.A.F.I. staff completing 40 years' service. Nearly 100 men and women who were members of the staff on the day N.A.A.F.I. was "born," were still serving the Corporation on its 40th birthday.

Naafi's largest foodhall was opened recently at Terendak Camp, Malaya. It offers a comprehensive range of groceries, provisions, fresh meats, fruit and vegetables, household and hardware goods, wines and spirits, cigarettes and tobacco, cosmetics and toys. A temporary gift department will eventually be transferred to the new Central Showroom, due to be completed this summer. Inside the shop, is a 36ft. run of refrigerated equipment for milk products, provisions, pies and meats, and a separate island site for a wide range of frozen foods.

Other facilities to be provided at Terendak Camp include a restaurant, bar, a central showroom for gifts and durable goods and the services of a draper and haberdasher, dressmaker, hairdresser, dry cleaner, tailor, photographer supplier, greengrocer, florist, watchmaker, footwear service, and a service for radio and electrical repairs.

OPERATION "PAY CHEQUE"

The amounts due to officers in the pay of Holt's Branch of Glyn, Mills and Co. are now calculated at the LEO Computer Centre. From such data as rate of pay, allowances, changes in rank and status, the computer prints the correct figure on the monthly credit advice in less time than it takes to say "Capt. Jack Robinson's Pay." The computer is even programmed to detect possible clerical errors and to draw the operator's attention to them before the slip leaves the machine.

Outwardly there is little to distinguish the completed slip from one prepared by conventional means. However, officers looking carefully at their monthly "cheque" and finding that the figures have been produced by making thousands of tiny dots with a stylus, instead of by typewriter, will know that they are involved in one of the latest advances in automation by British banks.

Apart from the main operation to produce monthly credit slips, LEO does three runs each week to ensure that officers get immediate benefit from promotions and other changes. An interesting link with the past is retained by keeping the old name of "Casualty Runs" for these interim calculations, although nowadays they are more likely to deal with a tax refund for a new addition to the family.

DUNKIRK VETERANS' ASSOCIATION

Members of the Regiment who took part in the evacuation of Dunkirk may not be aware of the existence of the 1940 Dunkirk Veterans' Association. Each Whitsun week-end an annual pilgrimage is organised to the beaches, where Memorial Services are held. Arrangements are made for wives and families of members to accompany them on the pilgrimage.

The Headquarters of the Association is in Leeds, but there are many Branches throughout the country. Representatives from both Bedford and Luton Branches were present at last year's ceremonies. The annual subscription is 3/- and anyone who is interested should get in touch with the Honorary General Secretary, 35, Spring Bank Crescent, Leeds 6.

THE ARMY ART SOCIETY

Patron:
Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Kent

The Society, which exists to encourage art in the Army and sister Services, is holding its 30th exhibition during October, 1961, at the Commonwealth Institute, South Kensington, S.W.7.

All ranks of the Army, Royal Navy and Royal Air Force, past or present, permanent or temporary, may submit works for consideration.

The Society is an entirely unofficial organisation and for several years very successful exhibitions have been held in London each autumn. Service artists can derive more interest from their hobby by aiming at submitting works for the Exhibitions, which also give them an opportunity to compare their standard and style with others.

As the Society is non-profit making, the entrance and hanging fees are kept as low as possible.

Intending exhibitors are invited to apply after May 1 for particulars. Applications should be addressed to: The Honorary Secretary, The Army Arts Society, Capt. A. J. Daldy, 16, King Edward's Grove, Teddington, Middlesex

IMPERIAL WAR MUSEUM ZEEBRUGGE AND OSTEND SPECIAL EXHIBITION

This exhibition commemorates the famous actions carried out on April 23 and May 10, 1918, by the Royal Navy and Royal Marines under the command of Admiral Keyes.

Among the original exhibits shown are a specially designed flame thrower, which was mounted in the "Vindictive," grappling irons which were used to keep the ships in contact with the mole at Zeebrugge, a portion of the damaged bridge of "Iris II" and a gong used by the Germans as a fog alarm at Zeebrugge.

There are models of the "Warwick," in which Admiral Keyes flew his flag at both actions, and of the "Vindictive," from which the landing parties operated at Zeebrugge and which was the blockship at Ostend.

Also in the exhibition are a number of paintings, contemporary German and British photographs and a series of diagrams to explain the object, execution and result of the two actions, which are also more fully described in a leaflet which is available in the gallery or on request.

OPENING DATE APRIL 21st 1961

The exhibition, which will be inaugurated by Mr. C. I. Orr-Ewing, Civil Lord of the Admiralty, on April 21, 1961, and open to the public from Monday, April 24, is the first in a series of special exhibitions now being planned by the Imperial War Museum. The object is to demonstrate particular aspects of the two World Wars or, as in this case, to commemorate special anniversaries.

Simultaneously with the opening of the Zeebrugge and Ostend Special Exhibition, a new permanent gallery displaying the military uniforms of Britain, her allies and her enemies in both World Wars will also be opened.

Further information will gladly be supplied by the Museum.

THE INFANTRY JUNIOR LEADERS' BATTALION

The Infantry Junior Leaders' Battalion, which was previously stationed at Plymouth, is now accommodated at Park Hall Camp, Oswestry, Salop.

The aim of the Battalion is to train and prepare youths as potential Warrant Officers and N.C.O.s for the Brigade of Guards and the Infantry of the Line. To achieve this the Battalion is organised into four Training Companies—"Guards" "A," "B" and "C" and a Recruit Company "Z." It is hoped to form a further Training Company shortly. The strength at present is 500, but it is intended to build it up to 800 as soon as possible.

Training is organised and supervised by Wings, which are as follows: Education, Weapon Training, Tactics, Drill, Adventure Training, Recreation and Physical Training.

Approximately one-third of a boy's time in the Battalion is spent on education and the object is to have as many Juniors as possible with the complete Senior Standard Certificate, which is equivalent to the Army Certificate of Education First Class. About one-third of the boys pass out having gained their First Class Army Certificate of Education, thus making them educationally qualified for promotion to Warrant rank.

During Weapon Training the object is to train the boy to handle those weapons which he would meet in a Platoon of Infantry.

The Tactics Wing teach minor tactics and signals. All boys attend a passing-out cadre which includes operating radio sets.

The Drill Wing is in charge of R.S.M. R. W. Smith, M.B.E., D.C.M., of the Coldstream Guards

The Adventure Wing is run on "Outward Bound" lines and plays an important part in the development of the boy's character. Each term every boy is sent on an expedition lasting two or three days. On these expeditions they are taught rock climbing, canoeing, the art of descending sheer rock faces on a rope, pot-holing and in general the art of living hard under adverse conditions. The boys are encouraged to enter the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme and several have been successful in gaining certificates in various standards.

Recreation and Physical Training is carried out under the supervision of an Instructor from the Army Physical Training Corps. The boys are taught to play most games played today in the Regular Army and the Battalion has a very high standard of successful records in Inter-Unit and Army competitions. Each boy is taught how to swim. The Battalion is fortunate in having an Olympic indoor swimming pool, which is one of the finest in the country.

THE INFANTRY JUNIOR LEADERS BATTALION

Standing left to right—1/Pvt. McDonald (Brampton), 1/Pvt. Beaumont (London), L/Cpl. Ward. The 3d Earl Argyle Regiment (Patt Carpenter), 1/Pvt. Parker (who was also left in the previous). 1/Pvt. It is hoped that ex-members of the Battalion who are commanding their own units will give sufficient thought to the advantages to be obtained by sending their boys to the Battalion. Prospective parents are always welcome to call and anyone wishing to do so should write to

The Commanding Officer,
The Infantry Junior Leader Battalion
Wingside Lane,
Park Hill Camp,
Oswestry, Shropshire.

Our photograph shows the boys serving with the Battalion who are remarked on in the Regiments as examples of their training. With them are CSM Frank, who is serving with the Devil Wing and L/Cpl. Ward, who is serving with the Battalion as PMS NCO. They will also have with them the new Capt. B. G. Cleveland, who was due to join the Battalion as a Company Second-in-Command in May.

We were very glad to see CSM Pease at RHQ recently when he gave us a brief account outline of the activities of the Infantry Junior Leader Battalion, with special reference to the boys who are due to join the Battalion on the completion of their training.

Colonel The Right Hon. Lord Luke, accepted, in March, an invitation from the Archbishop of Canterbury to become Chairman of the Church of England Council for Commonwealth Settlement. The Council advises and assists intending migrants going to all parts of the Commonwealth, and is also the Church's instrument for conferring with the Government and overseas churches and governments on points of policy.

We were very pleased to see ex-Colour-Sergeant Boreham when he called at R.H.Q. recently. He told us his business was making good progress, although it was hard work. He had been having some trouble with his leg again but it was getting better. He and Mrs. Boreham will always be pleased to see any old friends who are passing through Forest Gate.

Capt. M. L. A. Duffie has been posted from the 1st Battalion to the War Office for duty. He and his wife have been successful in obtaining a flat at No. 4 The Embankment, Putney, London, S.W.15, where they have a delightful view of the river.

When the obituary notice for the late Lt.-Col. E. S. C. Grune, was published in the December Number, the details of his service during the Second World War were, unfortunately, not available. Mrs. Grune has now kindly supplied these. In August, 1937, Col. Grune was recalled from the South of France to take up an appointment with The Royal Air Force. He was posted to Kidbrooke, Middlesex, on a course of instruction for six months, on the completion of the course he was given the rank of Squadron-Leader and early in 1938 was posted to Acklington, Northumberland, to open a new R.A.F. Station there. Early in 1939 he was promoted to Wing Commander and went to Cardington for a short course on balloons. On completion of the course he was appointed O.C. of the Balloon Centre at Glasgow. During his appointment there he was commended for the speed in which he transferred many balloons from Glasgow to Edinburgh when the Forth Bridge was heavily attacked. In May, 1940, Wing Commander Grune was transferred to Halton, Buckinghamshire to take up an appointment as No. 1 Administrative Officer. He remained there until the end of the War in 1945.

Col. Waite relinquished his appointment in the office of the Master-General of the Ordnance, The War Office, in March, and has since retired from the Army. We hear he has not been well and hope he will soon be quite fit again.

Relics of the Hertfordshire Militia are among the items which have been transferred from Headquarters, The Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.) to the Hertford Borough Museum at Bull Plain. These have been arranged most attractively by the Borough Librarian and Museum Superintendent, Mr. S. W. Davey.

Among those who had the honour of attending Her Majesty The Queen's Garden Party held at Buckingham Palace on May 11, were Brigadier and Mrs. C. M. Paton, Brigadier and Mrs. J. A. Longmore, Colonel and Mrs. A. Noble, Colonel and Mrs. Norman Salew, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. A. C. Young, and Major and Mrs. H. Mudford.

We very much regret to report the death of Lt.-Col. Sir Dealtry Part which occurred on February 9, 1961. From 1943 to 1957 Sir Dealtry Part was Her Majesty's Lieutenant for Bedfordshire. During the period of his Lieutenancy he never ceased to take the most keen interest in the activities of The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment. His friendliness, encouragement and attendance at regimental functions was much appreciated by all who knew him and who served with The Regiment. On the amalgamation, although he had retired from the Lieutenancy he continued his interest in The Regiment and it was a matter of great satisfaction to him that the amalgamation went so well. His last appearance at a regimental function was at the Presentation of Colours to the 1st Battalion at Warley in May, 1959. An obituary notice will be found elsewhere in this number.

Mr. W. E. Fisher has retired after 49 years in the printing trade. He served with The Sun Printers of Watford for over 40 years and in recognition of his long and loyal service he was presented with a gold watch. During the 1914/1918 War he joined The Bedfordshire Regiment and served in France. His home is at 36. Leyland Avenue, St. Albans.

An informal dinner for officers who served with the 2/5th Bn. The Essex Regiment was held at Williamson's Tavern, Bow Lane, London, E.C., on Friday, January 20. Those present were Brigadier C. M. Paton, the Associate Colonel, Lt.-Cols. K. F. May, V. C. Magill-Cuorden, C. A. Brooks, Majors D. A. C. Wilkinson, A. L. Cullen, Capts. D. N. Ardley, F. G. Coe, E. B. Cooper, P. B. Lake, P. P. Oexle, P. P. Perfect, M. B. Purry, W. B. Thompson, H. J. L. Wright, Lts. R. D. Barnslake, A. D. Lieper, J. P. Potts. Brigadier Paton proposed the Loyal Toast also the Toast to The Regiment coupled with the name of the Colonel-in-Chief, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother. The Brigadier also gave an interesting account of the affairs of The Regiment both past and present. The arrangements were made by Capt. P. B. Lake of High Garrett, Braintree, who is always anxious to hear from or of old members of the 2/5th Battalion.

Capt. Horace Parker writes from the Mons Officer Cider School, Aldershot, where his tour of duty ends in July. He has been Wepaon Training Officer since last September and has enjoyed his duties as such very much. When he wrote they were busy with arrangements for the Aldershot Tattoo and Exhibition.

Recent visitors to Warley have included Mr. L. J. Staples, ex 5999383, who served with The Essex Regiment from 1914 to 1937. Mr. Staples served with 1st, 2nd, 9th and 10th Battalions, and after his discharge he was employed by the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries. He retired in 1959 and is now living at Forest Gate.

"Having made a false statement about my age when I enlisted, I was only just fifteen when I went into action in the Dardanelles. I was present at both evacuations—at Suvla Bay and later at Cape Helles—after six months of action in the 1st Bn. The Essex Regiment. I am now sixty years old."

MILITARY ESSAY COMPETITION

1. BERTRAND STEWART Prize Essay Competition, 1962.
Prize £80.
Closing date—June 22, 1962.
Subject :—

N.A.T.O. requires a strong military force to protect Western Europe against outside aggression. This force is provided by one large and many small nations each attempting to maintain its own balanced army. U.N. require, from time to time, forces for "police" type actions. These forces are found from small detachments provided by many nations of the world.

Discuss how the armies of nations within N.A.T.O. could best be integrated and equipped to meet

- (a) the full defensive requirement of N.A.T.O.;
- (b) calls from the U.N. for assistance in "police" type actions anywhere in the world;

- (c) national commitments outside the area of N.A.T.O. command.

General conditions for this essay competition will be the same as for the 1961 competition and can be found in ACI 414 of 1960.

2. GEORGE KNIGHT CLOWES Memorial Prize Essay Competition, 1962.
Prizes—First Prize £35; second prize £15.
Closing date—March 31, 1962.
Subject:—

Napoleon expressed the opinion that in war the importance of morale in relation to physical considerations was as 3 is to 1. Today, in the nuclear age, the employment of new and revolutionary weapons tends to obscure the importance of morale as a war winning factor. Moreover, many modern writers almost entirely neglect the human aspect.

Discuss this, and give your views on how the morale of the Fighting Services can best be sustained in peace and war.

General conditions for this essay competition will be the same as for the 1961 competition and can be found in ACI 288 of 1960.

3. GOLD MEDAL AND TRENCH GAS-COIGNE Prize Essay Competition, 1961.
Prize—Thirty Guineas and Gold Medal.
Closing date—October 16, 1961.

The subject of the essay may be chosen from either of the following which rank equally in adjudication:—

- (a) "It has been said that the object of studying military history is not to acquire information about the past but to improve our judgment as to what ought to be done under conditions of actual war.

The introduction of nuclear weapons both strategic and tactical would seem to have altered the conditions of any future war completely.

Discuss the extent to which the study of past campaigns is still of any value in the training of future commanders of all three Services or could help in the formulation of tactical or strategic concepts for use in such a war."

OR

- (b) "The cost and complexity of training officers in the Services is steadily increasing. Discuss what inter-service action could be taken to ensure that the most efficient use is made of funds and facilities, e.g. integration of courses and joint use of facilities."

General conditions for this essay competition are contained in ACI 62 of 1961.

1st Battalion

November saw the complete move of the Battalion by companies to the new camp at Terendak Camp a few miles from Malacca town. Everyone was sorry to leave Ipoh but the excellent accommodation at the new camp and its proximity to the sea is some consolation. "C" Company were the last to leave operations and came out of the jungle on November 5. They were the first to go in on December 27, 1959, but of those that went in only six or seven came out. This is not as grim as it sounds as the rest were casualties to "civvy street" and the inevitable reshuffle within the Battalion. As we move towards an all regular Battalion it will be pleasant not to have to say farewell so often to familiar faces.

December was spent in settling down, getting all the clubs and sports going and enjoying Christmas. There were plenty of parties, a dance and an excellent Concert Party which was the result of a Talent Competition where there certainly was no shortage of talent. There also seemed to be no shortage of the Christmas "Spirit." One week in the month was devoted entirely to Internal Security Training culminating in a Battalion exercise. The "rioting mob" was easily found from within the Battalion together with our Asian Staff. In conjunction with a realistic improvised Middle East Type Police Officer and his men the "situation" was soon restored. Cars borrowed by the "terrorists" had weapons hidden in all sorts of places to test the searchers at road blocks. After being continually searched for a whole day the cars were somewhat the worse for wear and the owners suffered the indignity of having to push them to make them start as the batteries had been run absolutely flat with the frequent starting and stopping!

Thursday the 19th was January's big day when we had the Administrative Inspection. The previous fortnight had been spent in clearing the skeletons out of various cupboards and we all had to get back to parading as a Battalion again, and generally shake the jungle out of our hair. In the event the day passed off smoothly and everyone's hard work was rewarded with a good report. It is perhaps worth recording that the Inspecting Officer wrote to thank us for an enjoyable day.

VISIT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR WAR TO THE 1st BATTALION

The Secretary of State for War leaves the cookhouse of the 1st Battalion at Terendak Camp, Malacca, when he visited Army Units in Malaya recently. On his left is S.Q.M.S. R. Reddish. With The Rt. Hon. John Profumo, O.B.E., M.P., is the C.O., Lt.-Col. M. W. Holme, O.B.E., M.C., and Capt. W. J. G. Hancock.

That is the broad outline and now for some of the other events which took place over the period.

OUR CHIEF VISITORS

Our chief visitors were Field Marshal Sir Gerald and Lady Templer, the Bishop of Maidstone, the Rt. Hon. John Profumo, P.C., O.B.E., M.P., Secretary of State for War, the Rt. Hon. Duncan Sandys, M.P., Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations, and our new Australian Brigade Commander, Brigadier Haslett.

On December 1 the overland party of Lts. Pike, Sincock and Cpl. Carroll arrived safely in their Austin Gypsy having driven from England to Malaya in 58 days. The Band was there to play them in and the C.O. welcomed them with a glass of champagne.

Several clubs have been started and are going well. Being close to the sea makes fishing a popular pastime and several good catches have been made. The good ship Pompadour has been thoroughly overhauled and some attempts at the large fish known to exist further out to sea can now be made.

Sport plays an important part in our life here and inter-Company matches in hockey and soccer go on all the time. The Battalion hockey team with very little time to train did well to reach the Divisional Finals and were only beaten in the second half of extra time. They are also doing well in the Malacca League. The football team, although minus several of its stars of last year's triumphant season, are quickly settling down and new talent has appeared. With any luck you will be reading more of them in the months ahead.

AIRPORTABILITY

For many soldiers whose soldiering had been spent in anti-terrorist jungle operations, training for conventional war is entirely new and the emphasis here is on airportability. Each Company has practised unloading and deplaning and are well practiced in turning out properly loaded and equipped at short notice. Crossing rivers using improvised equipment and assault landings on the coast have added to the interest of training.

February was primarily an "Airportable" month with our work geared towards preparing the Battalion to move by air anywhere in the Far East with very little notice. Early in the month each of the four rifle Companies flew either from Malacca to Kuala Lumpur (the capital of Malaya which is about 100 miles away) or from Kuala Lumpur to Malacca. We flew in Bristol Freighters from the Royal New Zealand Air Force, and although the flight only lasted just over half an hour, it was an interesting introduction to flying to many new members of the Battalion. One Company had a chance of looking at flying from the other end when they provided the enemy on the ground for an air attack exercise by Scimitars and Sea Vixens from the Aircraft Carrier H.M.S. Hermes. The Aircraft Carrier was about 300 miles away and the planes flew "dry" sorties on to us on the first day and then on the second day we watched them firing live rockets into the hillside across the valley. During the next week quite a large number of soldiers were able to go down to Singapore to see H.M.S. Hermes and they spent a very enjoyable day seeing, amongst many other things, the planes which had attacked them.

Lieutenant-General Sir Reginald Denning, K.B.E., C.B., D.L., the Colonel of the Regiment, and Lady Denning, spent a week with the Battalion and saw all sides of our work and play. During the week, among many other things, the General inspected a Battalion Parade, when he read a message to the Battalion from our Colonel-in-Chief, Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, which is included in the special order of the day reproduced here. He also watched the Battalion football team beat the Malacca State Chinese side 4-0.

Colonel, The 3rd East Anglian Regiment
(16th/44th Foot).
Terendak Camp, Malacca.

I repeat the gracious message from the Colonel-in-Chief, Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, which Her Majesty commanded me to deliver to the Battalion and which I read out on the parade yesterday:

"I send to all ranks of The 3rd East Anglian Regiment my warmest greetings.

"The Battalion is often in my thoughts and I have followed with interest your recent activities in the Far East.

"Your varying roles in Malaya have often to be carried out in arduous and difficult conditions, and I have learned with pride that the high reputation of the Battalion has been most worthily maintained during the past year.

"I wish you all God speed and good fortune."

(signed) ELIZABETH, R.

On leaving the Battalion after my visit, I wish to express to Lt.-Col. Holme and all ranks, my entire satisfaction with the high moral, good order and efficiency of the Battalion.

It is quite apparent to me, both from what I have seen and from what the Commander-in-Chief, the Divisional Commander and other Commanders have said to me, that whatever

The "Ides of March" as described by Shakespeare in "Julius Caesar" had their counterpart with a stormy period here. The "horrors" of Sumatra, the sudden storms of gale force when nothing keeps the rain out, and the jelly fish season are not yet upon us but the local sages say they are approaching! We are, however, one up on Caesar for nowhere is it recorded that he feasted on fish and chips while we have a "mobile" in the form of a one-tonner suitably equipped which produces for 50 cents (1/2d.) fish, chips, bread, butter and tea several nights a week round the camp. Another welcome amenity is provided by the Austin Omnicoach given to us by the Nuffield Trust. It seats 12 and can be chartered for almost any purpose. When shared by a full load the running costs are very low and it will provide people with a cheap and comfortable method of getting round and about.

The Divisional Individual Fencing Championships were held this month, in which S/Sgt. Day won the Champion at Arms Shield for the second year in succession by winning foil and sabre with a 2nd place in epee. Capt. Randall won the epée. The Battalion Team was already through to the FARELF Final which will be held in Hong Kong in May, so we will be well represented there.

In lighter vein, the following report from our "roving correspondent" of a march to Port Dickson show that the infantry in this nuclear age have not lost the use of their feet. A glossary of terms used was found necessary for those not fluent in local parlance.

10 PLATOON MARCH TO PORT DICKSON

"We intend to march 40 miles to Port Dickson." Thus one momentous morning in February Ten Platoon Commander, held in an arm-lock by Platoon Sgt. Philip, shattered the customary calm of "D" Company office. It was reported that the Company clerk even stopped typing.

So it was that, one very early morning, our gallant band began its Hannibal-like trek. Only the elephants were missing—although after a few miles some of the weaker brethren appeared to be carrying them in their packs. Slowly the sparkling wit changed to a more cynical type of comment as the sweat began to run more freely. Pace by pace the distance was covered and at 1300 hrs. we fell into the sea at Kampong Tengah, thirteen miles from camp. This was not a navigational error. The Platoon Commander chose this beautiful spot as the overnight base. An afternoon's bathing was followed by a good meal. Soon, lulled by the gentle lapping of the waves and the whining of a thousand mosquitos, the Platoon slept. Tuesday morning and the night stop was just a pleasant memory. Placing one foot in front of the other soon became automatic again. So automatic that one rest was brightened by the sight of a rifleman vanishing over the horizon in a trance-like state after disregarding the order to halt. He was recaptured and switched off soon afterwards.

The main task on Tuesday was the crossing of the Linggi estuary. That splendid maid of all work, "The Pompadour," came to our aid punctually and this obstacle was soon surmounted. With 15 miles of slogging behind us, we arrived in the middle of a cloudburst at Lubok Cinra and 'bashared up' on the local padang. During the afternoon the platoon commander conducted a sparkling Malay conversation with a local youth. Forty-five minutes later the local football team arrived immaculately clad. Apparently "Tuan" in a moment of incoherence had accepted a game. We lost 3-1. That evening we prepared our meals in what is usually termed "a welter of publicity." Our solid fuel cookers were too much for the local natives who were still rubbing sticks together. Consequently a soldier only had to brew up and he was deified by a reverent crowd. No joss-sticks were seen but it was a close thing. The platoon was lulled to sleep this night by the Chinese version of Baa Baa Black Sheep, with English sub-titles, sung in superb cacophony by a crowd of school children.

Wednesday—and the last stage. Even the cynical comments stopped coming now. The only sound apart from the unsteady shuffle of blistered feet was the nashing of teeth determinedly set. The miles ground past very slowly and the halts became longer. At last at approximately 1500 hours the platoon crawled over the last imaginary sand dune to their oasis. As we wiped the sweat from our eyes we found it was none other than Major "Billy Budin" Philcox's holiday camp. The journey was over. (Thinks: "Thanks to Hoolaxxks!)

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Port Dickson: Town and bathing resort on West Coast of Malaya—famous for sunsets.

Kampong: Prefix to village names to show it is a Kampong (village).

"The Pompadour": Battalion boat bought for $47.00 (£6) and renovated. Famous for the voyage from Lumut to Fort George (see last edition Wasp and Eagle).

Lubok: Another prefix to denote village, possibly smaller than a kampong, very confusing.

'Bashered up': From noun basha; a rough shelter manufactured on the spot from any available resources. Intended to keep the rain out. Verb to basha up requires no further explanation.

Tuan: Malay for sahib, effendi and literally 'lord,' but that is going a bit too far.

Joss stick: Sticks of incense to be found burning everywhere. Gods like the smell. Devils apparently do not.

An exercise on moving the Battalion rapidly was put on without any warning at the beginning of April. Companies out on training miles away and soldiers on leave returned at speed and by dint of much effort and little sleep we were concentrated, loaded and equipped in under sixteen hours of getting the warning. We were stood down just before we were about to move and gradually things resumed their normal tempo with companies returning to their training areas, etc.

Training for Borneo has again been the priority and another Parachute Course has been successfully completed by a party of 20. The square has been well used lately while the Commander-in-Chief's Guard rehearsed. In Bangkok too the Regiment is well represented as the Band went up there in a destroyer to play at the British Ambassador's Reception on The Queen's birthday. They beat Retreat by flood-light at the Embassy. They also made several public performances including one on television. The Thai's gave them a great reception and the trip, though packed with engagements, was much enjoyed. They were fortunately able to fit in a sight-seeing tour and saw the magnificent palace and temples.

It has been a great month for sport both in golf and football. Sgt. Edwards, A.P.T.C., won the FARELF Golf Championship and with Pte. Cooper won the FARELF Inter-Regimental Shield.

Earlier it was mentioned that more might be heard of this year's Battalion football team and this has been borne out. In rapid succession this month we have beaten The Field Regiment, R.A., 3-1, The Gurkha Rifles 7-1, The Field Regiment, R.A., 1-0, and The L.A.A. Regiment, R.A., 5-0 to win the Divisional Cup for the second year in succession. The team is now on its way to Hong Kong for the FARELF semifinal, and if successful still, the final. It will be asking a lot of the team to pull off the FARELF Cup for a second time too but it will not be for lack of trying.

The following promotions have taken place:—
2/Lts. A. R. A. Veitch and P. F. Bye to Lieutenant.

Lts. J. E. Hutchings and W. R. W. Pike to Captain.

Major C. C. Norbury and Capt. M. L. A. Duffie for duty at The War Office; Major J. C. Salazar for duty with the King's African Rifles; 2/Lt. D. W. Westcott to Brigade Depot for a course, and 2/Lt. P. B. Light to Brigade Depot for N.S. Release.

The following have arrived:—

Major R. J. Randall for duty as Second-in-Command; Major R. C. C. Greener, Lt. M. J. Lewis and 2/Lt. P. W. Wright from East Anglian Brigade Depot for duty with the Battalion.

R.Q.M.S. R. Jenns has been awarded the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal.

Overland to join the 1st Battalion in Malaya

In the December number, 1960, on pages 192 and 193, an account was given of the adventurous journey of Lt. (now Capt.) W. Pike, Lt. P. Sincock and Cpl. Carroll to join the 1st Battalion in Malaya by overland route.

All went well with the team and they arrived at Terendak Camp on Thursday, December 1, having made the journey in fifty-eight days.

We are indebted to The British Army Public Relations Service, 17 Gurkha Division/Overseas Commonwealth Land Forces for the following interesting report of the team's arrival at the Battalion's Camp, Malacca, and interviews which were had with them:—

A champagne welcome awaited the two young British Army officers and a Corporal when they arrived at Terendak Camp, near Malacca, in Malaya, a few days ago after driving overland from England. The trio, Lt. P. J. Sincock, 24, Little Blakey, Danbury, Essex, Capt. W. R. W. Pike, 26, 170, Trinity Street, Gainsborough, Lincs, and Cpl. P. D. Carroll, 22, Clark Street, Ladywood, Birmingham, made the journey in fifty-eight days . . . and this may well be a world record time for the eleven thousand two hundred mile trip. Said Capt. Pike: "The funny thing about it all is that the whole thing started as a joke. Eventually, however, it became so serious that we could not back out. Still I wouldn't have missed it for anything. It was the greatest adventure of my life."

When they arrived at their unit at Fort George, near Malacca, on Thursday, December 1, in their dusk-caked vehicle, the Commanding Officer of the 1st Battalion, Lt.-Col. M. W. Holme, was there to greet them. So, too, were eight hundred men of The Pompadours who were lined along the last hundred yards of the team's journey into camp. The Commanding Officer congratulated the three adventurers on their fine trip and said: "Well done. A fine effort. We are proud of you." Then there was champagne for the trio.

Later the adventurers spoke to reporters about their journey. They all agreed that it had been tough going and very rough at times.

Said Lt. Sincock: "This journey taught me one thing more than anything else . . . and that is never to give up. Several times we could have thrown in the towel, but we kept plugging on. We encountered many difficulties and on one or two occasions we were told we could not go any further." "It was undoubtedly our determination to get through at all costs," said Cpl. Carroll, "that led to our success. It was a great adventure . . . something I shall remember for the rest of my life."

The target for the journey was 58 days and the team made it with three hours to spare. To achieve this, however, they had to drive night and day for the last three days of the trip.

Plans for the journey started to take shape about nine months ago when Austin Motors of Longbridge, Birmingham, decided to back the three adventurers and supply them with a new Austin Gypsy vehicle. Several other firms joined the venture, but the personal cost to the three lads was about three hundred and twenty pounds between them. Said Lt. Sincock: "The money didn't worry us at all. It was only our wages for the period we were on leave, plus twenty pounds each which we all paid out of our own pockets."

The journey itself was interesting and pretty exciting at times. Early on they encountered little difficulty, although in Yugoslavia they were fined ten shillings for exceeding the speed limit on an autobahn. The first really extraordinary experience they had was in the middle of the Dash-e-Lut desert in Iran. This desert is reputed to be the driest in the world, and while crossing it they came across an Englishman resting near his scooter. He was exhausted and his machine had broken down. He said he came from Coventry and had been a merchant seaman for some years. Having seen the world by sea he now wanted to see it by land. Lt. Sincock said: "The amazing thing about this chap was that he was not the slightest bit perturbed about his predicament. He had hardly any water left and here he was stranded in the middle of the desert, miles from anywhere. We helped him to get his scooter started and filled up his water bottle before we pushed on."

In India the travellers enjoyed seeing the Taj Mahal before facing the big problem of getting across the River Ganges. Lt. Pike told us: "We were assured that we could cross by rail ferry or steamer at Bihar, but when we got there the ferry wasn't working and the steamer was for passengers only. For a time it looked as if we were stranded but luckily we were able to hire a sailing boat and so decided to ferry the vehicle down river on this. It turned out to be a dangerous operation as there was no road on the other side of the Ganges for forty-two miles. We were glad to get off."

The adventurers ran into more trouble at Shillong in Assam where they were held up for six days trying to get a pass which would take them through the Naga Hills. Every person they tried refused them permission and for a time it looked as if they would have to ship the vehicle to Calcutta. The soldiers did not give up, however, and on the sixth day they got permission to go through. The Naga Hills is a disturbed area and because of the local tribesmen—former headhunters—causing trouble the team had to go through with a heavily guarded military convoy.

"It was at Meiktila, in Burma, that it really looked as if the journey had come to an end," said Lt. Sincock. The rear wheel came off while they were travelling at fifty miles an hour and they had a miraculous escape. The vehicle skidded for a hundred and fifty yards before stopping. Said Lt. Sincock: "The damage to the axle looked beyond repair and it seemed as if we would have to make a 350-mile journey to Rangoon by train to see if they could get the necessary spare parts. There was an Army camp nearby, however, and we went along to see if they could do anything for us. Our luck was in for a little Burmese mechanic there said he could do the job. We breathed again. To get the spare parts the mechanic stripped down a Burmese Air Force vehicle and used them to build up our axle." The adventurers were on their way again in four hours, but their troubles were not over. At the Burmese Thai border they encountered yet another hazard. The river which should have been low at this time of the year was a raging torrent.

They decided they should have a go and drove into the river—only to get stuck half way. Cpl. Carroll said: "Luckily there were about thirty natives on the bank of the river and they ran into the river to help us. After a great struggle we managed to haul the vehicle over to the other side." From Thailand to Malaya it was plain sailing and the first thing to strike them about Malaya, they said, was the quality of the roads. Lt. Sincock said that the roads were some of the best that they had travelled on.

All three concluded: "It was a great adventure."

THE EAST ANGLIAN BRIGADE DEPOT

GENERAL

Since our last notes in September we have been more than three times our designed strength by taking as many National Servicemen as possible to help fill the Regular Battalions. We can now begin to breathe more freely as the last National Service intakes passed out on February 3, 1961. However, the more Regular recruits who come through the gate the better and we hope they will flood in. At present we have three Platoons, of 30 men each, under training, and some 20 recruits waiting to start. We would be happier if these numbers were doubled!

The main highlights during the last six months have been our first Annual Administration Inspection, Christmas festivities and the passing out of the last National Service intake. The District Commander, Major-General Talbot was the Inspecting Officer for this first annual inspection and as there was no question of impeding the training of recruits and the Junior Soldiers' Wing we were very hard put to get everything as we would like it. All went well, particularly in the Q.M.'s spheres of influence, and we can be more than satisfied with the report. However, the unannounced practice fire alarm, which went off smoothly, was somewhat marred as the Staff Officer, who announced that the hut he was standing in was on fire, was surprised to see three eager soldiers promptly take the fire buckets, etc., outside on parade, instead, we presume, of the water being tipped out there and then on the hut floor!

The essence of a successful Christmas is the help shown by all and sundry in making the festivities go: this was there in force, particularly from C.S.M.I. Talkington and the Physical Training staff, and the Sergeants' Mess, who carried out the decorations for the Permanent Staff dance and decorated the cinema for the children's party and the Junior Ranks Club. 2/Lt. Cole, R.A.E.C., who is a Magic Circle civilian conjuror in his own right, bemused the children with an admirable show, and Sgt. Curzon was a splendid Father Christmas. These activities were a great success and enjoyed by all and sundry. A Service of Seven Carols and Seven Lessons was also held in the Gymnasium; the Band of Junior Soldiers playing and the Lessons read by various ranks included one read by Junior L/Cpl. Steeples.

The next highlight was the visit of General Sir Gerald Lathbury, G.O.C.-in-C., Eastern Command, who took the last National Service Passing Out Parade. The parade comprised 80 recruits of "Burma" and "Almanza" Platoons, assisted by the Band of the Junior Soldiers' Wing. We had this parade filmed in colour to be shown on Parents' Day and to recruits. The parade went off extremely well, the C.-in-C. complimenting all who took part on a very high standard. Prior to the parade ITV interviewed the Commanding Officer, C.S.M. Denny and Pte. Powley, 1 East Anglian, one of the last to join of the National Servicemen, and during the parade the Press and television were very active. That evening all appeared on television. Early in January we were visited by a team from ITV, who made a film record of life in the Depot. This was shown on Anglia Television, together with a studio interview of R.S.M. Gell, 2 East Anglian.

Much has been done to improve the camp. The conference room is completed, the new M.R.S. and temporary Gymnasium are all but ready. Both the latter being in Blenheim Camp will save a great deal of wasted time in going half-a-mile to Gibraltar Barracks. Unfortunately, the .22 range remains over the road. The mass of shrubs and wallflowers are in full bloom and the camp looks very civilised.

Col. Heal left in January; he had been Brigade Colonel since 1958 and both he and Mrs. Heal and their family will be much missed. Col. Heal's appointment is Colonel (Q Logistics)

Allied Land Forces Central Europe, at Fontainbleau, where we wish him the best of luck. We welcome the new Brigade Colonel, Col. Martin, and his family. Col. Martin commanded the 1st Bn. 2nd East Anglian Regiment (Duchess of Gloucester's Own) before coming here. Lt.-Col. A. S. Hanning, O.B.E., having held the appointment of R.O.III at H.Q., East Anglian Brigade for seven years, retired in November, 1960. Col. Arthur, as he was known throughout the Brigade, had commanded a Battalion of his Regiment, the Grenadier Guards, and is well remembered by many senior Officers of the Brigade as Adjutant at Sandhurst for a period between the Wars. He originally enlisted during the First World War into the Lincolnshire Regiment and was commissioned into the Norfolk Regiment. The H.Q. has also lost the services of Mr. Charles Edey. He joined the Suffolk Regiment in 1914 and served until 1935. Since 1939 he was employed as Clerical Officer at the Depot, Suffolk Regiment, and latterly at East Anglian Brigade. Mr. Edey was responsible for arranging postings and, of paramount importance, allowances for his flock of Officers. To both

Col. Hanning and Mr. Edey we offer our very best wishes in their retirement.

Daffodil Sunday was instituted by Brigadier Backhouse in 1934 when he was commanding the Depot of The Suffolk Regiment. It was not held this year, as we are now in Blenheim Camp and Gibraltar Barracks is deserted awaiting for rebuilding to start. Once we return it will be resumed, probably in 1963.

The Brigade Depot Week-end is being held on July 21, 22 and 23. The outline programme is:

- Friday, July 21 ... All-day Golf Meeting.
 Saturday, July 22 a.m. Golf Match v. Flemp-ton Golf Club.
 p.m. Garden Party.
 Start of two-day cricket match, East Anglian Brigade v. The Suffolk Gentlemen.
 Sunday, July 23 Second day of cricket match.

Past and present members and their wives of all Regiments are most welcome; unfortunately only limited accommodation can be provided. Additional information will be sent and can be obtained from Regiments' Headquarters.

OFFICERS' MESS

The Mess is now completely settled into Blenheim Camp. Thanks to the efforts of the Mess staff we are now quite comfortable. The Christmas season saw us entertaining about 90 official guests at a Cocktail Party and entertaining our wives and girl friends at a Ladies' Guest Night, and having traditional Christmas drink with the Sergeants. The Cocktail Party was used as a means of repaying the hospitality of the many friends of the Depot and was quite a success; the success was in some measure due to the efforts put in by Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Joanny and Mrs. Bailey decorating the ante-room. The Ladies' Guest Night was held on December 19 and is to be an annual event. Considerable efforts to suitably decorate the Mess were made by the Subalterns, the three wives mentioned above and the now Mrs. Ken Ford. Dinner was followed by horse racing, where Brian Bailey and Fred Turnbull proved to be experienced but honest bookies.

Among the Guest Nights held, the most notable one was that at which Col. Heal was "dined out"; he even won the Liar Dice game, which ended in a close finish between himself and his D.A.A.G.

There have, of course, been the usual "comings and goings" and we were sad to lose Ptes. Blowers, Thrower and Dann, who started the Mess off in such good order.

Amongst our visitors have been all the Colonels of Regiments, the Associate Colonels of the 1st and 2nd East Anglian Regiments, the G.O.C.-in-C. Eastern Command and General Talbot, the late District Commander and General Freeland, the new District Commander.

For the additional items of silver and other property received from the Regiments during the period since our last appearance in print, we extend our grateful thanks.

WARRANT OFFICERS' AND SERGEANTS' MESS

During the past six months we have settled down to becoming a proper Depot Mess for the three Regiments of the Brigade; we can now say we are organised sufficiently to receive and cater for the many members who pass through and this they do with great rapidity. We send our best wishes to all those who have come and gone, who include such people as R.S.M.s Gilchrist and McGeever, R.Q.M.S. "Dickie" May, C.S.M. Tony Brandreth, S/Sgt. "Bomber" Harris, Sgt. Brabrook, Sgt. Tommy Weston, Sgt. "Taffy" Jones. Congratulations to Sgt. Knight on his marriage.

As for the staff ourselves, the Mess news is of Christmas, where we commenced with a really wonderful draw, capably organised by Sgt. "Mick" Curson, assisted by C/Sgt. Bill Belcher, C/Sgt. Roberts and nearly all the Mess. This was quickly followed by a Christmas Dinner and Dance, at which the guests of honour were S.W.O. and Mrs. Ward, from the R.A.F. Mess at Honnington. The dinner was really first-rate and our grateful thanks are due to George Tattersall, our civilian cook, and the Mess staff. A couple of days later, on the 22nd, we invited the Officers' Mess to drinks prior to serving the troops' Christmas dinner. The 23rd saw us in the midst of the traditional battle with the Officers on the football field. Mud, flour and tomatoes flying, we proved once again that the Sergeants' Mess has the necessary spirit and dash, after a hectic week of social activities. We quickly recovered, however, in the Officers' Mess afterwards, when the ale flowed profusely.

Since Christmas R.A.F. Honnington has thrashed us at a Games Night in their Mess, though we intend to turn the table on April 21.

We now have a magnificent consignment of silver, the last lot coming from The Northamptonshire Regiment, which is displayed on a special dais in the ante-room. We are truly grateful to all those Regiments who have sent us such superb remembrances of former days; they will be well looked after.

We conclude with good wishes to our friends everywhere and trust that when this way, they will drop in and see us.

THE JUNIOR SOLDIERS' WING

The Junior Soldiers' Wing, as we are now called, have been in Bury St. Edmunds for nine months. During this time there have been great improvements in our accommodation and classrooms, making life more pleasant. On Tuesday, December 20, the last day of the Winter Term, the Junior Soldiers were served their Christmas dinner by the Officers and senior N.C.O.s of the Depot.

The Inter-Hut Competition is organised every term and the winning hut is known as Champion Hut for the following term. The competition covers nearly every aspect of a Junior Soldier's life, educational attainment, musical progress, soccer, hockey, cricket, athletics, cross-country, .22 shooting, drill, hut inspections, and boys are awarded colours for any representative sport. At the end of each term the Champion Hut is given a prize. Last term Sullivan Hut won this competition and thoroughly enjoyed their prize—a trip to London to watch the Arsenal v. Burnley match. This term the competition was won by Handel Hut; the competition has been very keen all through the term. Sullivan Hut came a very close second, with Elgar and Britten behind them. The prize is a visit to the Kensington Science Museum, followed by the Crazy Gang in the evening.

On Armistice Sunday the Band and Drums of the Junior Soldiers' Wing took part in a parade attended by representatives of the three Services in Bury St. Edmunds and the Drummers sounded Reveille and the Last Post at the Cenotaph after the March Past.

In the Army Boys' Soccer Cup we were beaten by the Wessex Brigade, who were the eventual runners-up. We came seventh in the Army Boys' Cross-Country Championships; J/Dmrs. Jarvis and Drage coming 15th and 19th respectively. For this fine effort they were both awarded their Cross-Country Colours.

J/Sgt. Skayman, J/Sgt. Byrne, J/L/Cpl. McHale and Bdsm. Renton all go to Kneller Hall this year.

At the end of this term the Band are giving a concert in the men's dining hall at lunch-time and the Corps of Drums are beating Retreat in the evening.

Congratulations are due to Drum-Major and Mrs. Moyes on the birth of their daughter, and to L/Cpl. Patterson on his marriage.

5th Bn. The Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.)

These will be the last notes contributed by the 5th Battalion because of our amalgamation with the 1st Bn. The Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.), which took effect on April 1, 1961. It is our intention, however, to keep past members in touch with events through the notes of our new amalgamated Battalion. Since the last issue of The Journal the Battalion has been very busy closing down various Drill Halls and uniting Companies, "H.Q.", "A," "B" and a contingent of "SP" Companies are now called No. 4 Company and will be commanded by Major W. J. Darville, the H.Q. being at Kempston Barracks. "C" Company, "D" Company and also a small contingent of "SP" Company form No. 3 Company, commanded by Major G. H. Hickinbottom, with H.Q. at Luton.

The week-ends have been very busy ones for us, with courses and training taking place; N.C.O.s Cadre, Cooks' Course, rehearsals for the Guard of Honour for Her Majesty The Queen Mother, Colonel-in-Chief, and training the shooting team to represent the amalgamated Battalion in the Brigade and Divisional Championships. The N.C.O.s Cadre which took place in February at Kempston Barracks was well attended by N.C.O.s of the amalgamated Battalion and proved to be a great success, not only from the instructional point of view, but also in that it gave the N.C.O.s of both Regiments a chance to get to know each other, which they did in the Social Club after the conclusion of the training.

Last year the football team won the Divisional Championship, but unfortunately we did not achieve the same success this year. This was not for the want of trying. We were eliminated in the semi-final by the Suffolk Yeomanry. After a very close game we were the losers by two goals to one. Nevertheless, the team is still fighting hard under the careful guidance of C/Sgt. Baines and is at present halfway up in the Bedford Football League table.

Regimental Remembrance Day was held on Sunday, November 20, 1960, at Kempston, and was well attended by contingents of the 5th Bn. The Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.) and 1st Bn. The Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.). Also in attendance were members of the Branches of Old Comrades' Associations of both Regiments. After the Service, which was held in the Church of the Transfiguration, Kempston, the parade formed up for a march past, the salute being taken by the Colonel of the Regiment. The parade concluded with the wreath laying ceremony at the Memorial.

During Christmas the Sergeants' Mess held a Christmas Draw and Social, which was well attended by members (standing room only after 9 p.m.). There were more than 100 prizes and many members left, not only "loaded" but with many prizes! In January a dance was held at Ashburnham Road Drill Hall, with the Battalion Dance Band in attendance. This was also a success, and was well supported.

We are sorry to say that there are not many newcomers to the Battalion, but we have had quite a few departures, including Majors S. G. Philpott and E. Corner, Capts. W. D. Folds, A. J. Pargeter and D. Wood, Lts. L. T. Simmonds, M. C. Dashwood, R. C. Whitbread, G. M. Gadd, R. C. Putham and Lt. (Q.M.) D. C. L. Cowley. In addition, R.Q.M.S. Harley, C.S.M. Field, C.S.M. Hill, C.S.M. Morley, Sgt. Fisher and Sgt. Bligh-Bingham are a few of the other ranks who have left. Lt.-Col. D. Milman, M.C., who has commanded the Battalion since July, 1959, has now left for his new appointment and we all wish him the very best of luck. Permanent Staff members, C.S.M. Jackman, C.S.M. Archer and C.S.M. Corner, are now trying their hand in "Civvy Street." Sgt. Weston, after a long stay with us, is now settled down at the Depot, Bury St. Edmunds, and we wish them the best of luck in the future.

It is with great regret that we announce the death of Sgt. E. H. Johnson, B.E.M. (Band). He served with the Battalion for 11 years and died suddenly while preparing to attend a parade. The Band has suffered a severe loss and he will be greatly missed. The Regiment was represented at his funeral by Lt.-Col. D. Milman, M.C., Capt. S. A. Green, R.S.M. Herd, Bandmaster F. Battle and members of the Band.

Our camp period is fast approaching (June 24-July 8) and we are looking forward to an interesting two weeks on the Pembrokeshire coast, at Castlemartin (weather permitting!).

Staff. The following familiar faces are no longer with us: Capt. W. D. Page has taken up a Staff appointment in Germany; C.S.M. Charlesworth has joined the 1st Bn. The 3rd East Anglian Regiment (16th/44th Foot) in Malaya; Sgt. Smith is now with the 2nd East Anglian Regiment in Somerset; whilst Sgt. Shorter has gone to the 1st East Anglian Regiment in Germany. We wish them every happiness in their new surroundings and feel sure that they carry with them happy memories of their tour of duty with The Hertfordshire Regiment. Further changes are due to take place in the near future. Capt. (Q.M.) W. A. Moody has been appointed Camp Commandant in Aden, whilst our sincere congratulations are extended to R.S.M. McKean upon his appointment to a Lieutenant (Q.M.)'s commission, in which role he will be posted for duty to the King's African Rifles. As successors to the above we warmly welcome Capt. S. A. Green as Adjutant, Capt. (Q.M.) V. A. French (no stranger to the Regiment) as Q.M., and R.S.M. Herd. As P.S.I.s, C.S.M. Carr, Sgt. Dallimore and Sgt. Baggaridge have joined us, and we trust that they will quickly settle in and enjoy their association with the Regiment.

In other fields of activity we are pleased to report considerable successes obtained by our Rifle team. The semi-final of the East Anglian Divisional competition was reached—an achievement which augers well for the future, bearing in mind the number of young soldiers included in the team. "H.Q." Company reached the finals of the T.A. Small Bore Rifle Match competition and represented the County of Hertfordshire—a praiseworthy effort.

Recruiting has considerably increased in recent months and the present volunteer strength is most encouraging. It is a credit to the Regiment that a large percentage of those resigning have gone to join the Regular Army.

Social events have been well to the fore in recent months. Most Companies have organised Dinners and Dances which have been exceptionally well attended. The Sergeants' Mess held a most successful Cocktail Party to mark its last social function before the amalgamation.

The reorganisation of the Battalion has inevitably meant the exodus of many old stalwarts who served the Regiment loyally and efficiently over a number of years. Among those to whom we have to say "Au Revoir" are C.S.M. North, C/Sgt. White, Sgt. Carroll and Sgt. Perry. We thank them for the invaluable work they have done for the Regiment and very much look forward to their continued support whenever possible. They will always be assured of a warm welcome at our social events. With the closing of the T.A. Centre at Cheshunt, the members of No. 3 Company have now become a Recce Platoon under "H.Q." Company and operate from the Drill Hall at Ware.

1st Bn. The Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.)

Much has happened since the last issue of The Wasp and the Eagle. Momentous decisions have been reached affecting the future of the Territorial Army and above all the amalgamation with the 5th Bn. Bedfordshire Regiment has been foremost in the minds of us all. But transcending all this has been the great honour assigned to the Battalion by being delegated to provide a Royal Guard of Honour for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother, at St. Albans on April 13, when Her Majesty received the Freedom of the Borough.

The reorganisation has naturally brought many changes in the make-up of the Permanent

Her Majesty, The Colonel-in-Chief, inspecting the Guard of Honour, accompanied by Lt.-Col. C. Simmons, the Commanding Officer.

The Battalions amalgamated on April 1, 1961. The following message was sent to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother, Colonel-in-Chief :

"With humble duty to Her Majesty. On the occasion of the amalgamation of the 5th Bn. The Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.) and the 1st Bn. Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.) I convey the loyal greetings and unswerving devotion of all ranks to Her Majesty, the Colonel-in-Chief. I assure Her Majesty that it will be our earnest endeavour to be worthy of the high traditions of the two former Regiments."

C. SIMMONS, Lt.-Col., Commanding,
T.A. Centre, St. Andrew Street,
Hertford."

The Battalion received the following gracious reply from Her Majesty :

"On the formation of the Battalion I send to all ranks my warmest greetings. I am confident that the reputation for loyalty and courage which both Regiments have earned in their past history will be inherited and fully sustained in the future and I trust that the new Regiment will not only uphold but will enhance the noble traditions which are your heritage. I am indeed proud to be your Honorary Colonel and I can assure you that the interest of the Regiment will always be close to my heart."

The Guard of Honour

[Photograph by "The Herts. Advertiser," St. Albans.]

The new amalgamated Battalion carried out its first parade on April 13, 1961, at St. Albans, when it was very proud to provide a Guard of Honour for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother, Colonel-in-Chief. A lot of hard work was put into the Guard by everybody concerned. This was rewarded by a fine day and the pleasure expressed later by Her Majesty on inspecting the Guard of Honour. During her inspection, the Queen Mother spoke to many members of the Guard and afterwards complimented them on the smartness of their drill and turn-out.

The next week-end the Battalion shooting team (many of whom were on the Guard of Honour) followed up this parade with some notable successes at the Brigade Rifle Meeting. The Battalion came second to the Suffolk and Cambridgeshire Regiment in the aggregate competition. It won the L.M.G. pairs competition, and special mention must go to Sgt. Barker and Cpl. Dean, of No. 4 Company, who won the individual L.M.G. pairs competition. Capt. Peter Simmons also came fourth in the individual Rifle competition. The Battalion also came second to the 4th Bn. The Essex Regiment in the falling plate competition. The team is now training very hard indeed for the Divisional competition at Colchester.

4th Battalion The Essex Regiment (T.A.)

The months which have passed since the last issue of The Wasp and Eagle have been very active and encouraging. Recruiting continues to progress steadily and the 400 figure is now within reach. Our recruiting figures have been helped by a number of volunteers, who have been transferred to us as a result of the T.A. re-organisation, though we have had ninety-five new recruits join us since last July, and an average of four are inspected by our M.O. every week. We are pleased to welcome Mr. Snape and his Band who have been transferred to us from 517 L.A.A. Regiment R.A. (5 Essex) T.A. as a body and look forward to hearing them perform at Regimental functions. We also welcome Major Jack Harries from 10 Para. Bn. (T.A.) who is now finally settled in the chair as O.C. H.Q. Company. A number of officers have left us on transfer to the T.A.R.O. and to Major G. V. Lovelace, Capts. Critten, Hollis and Portway, and Lt. Osgood, we wish them well for the future, and thank them for the part they played whilst serving with us.

The Band and Corps of Drums met each other for the first time on Sunday, May 7, 1961, at the Battalion Rifle Meeting, and after camp will be showing their paces at the Regimental Reunion on Saturday, July 15, 1961.

We can report success in the shooting field as our "A" team won the 54 E.A. Division District .22 Knock-out League Competition. We won the "China" Cup and Falling Plates at the Brigade Rifle Meeting at Thetford on April 15/16, 1961, and our young soldiers were well to the fore.

Our boxers are training hard for the T.A. Individual Boxing Championships and we have five men representing the Division.

Life becomes more and more hectic as we prepare for camp at Millom this June.

WARRANT OFFICERS' AND SERGEANTS' MESS

Our Mess at Gordon Fields is now in regular use and has acquired possession of the shooting jacket of Sgt. John Tipping, late of The Essex Regiment, who was renowned as one of this country's best shots in the era before the First World War. He represented England nine times and fired for the Commonwealth on three separate occasions.

The Officers' Mess have presented us with a lovely picture of our Colonel-in-Chief, which we are proud and honoured to own.

Some of our older members have left us, and to C.S.M. Perry and Anderson we say goodbye and extend to them our best wishes for a happy retirement from the rigours of part-time soldiering.

Congratulations to C.S.M. Womack and C.Q.M.S. Summers on their promotions, and a warm welcome to Sgt. Martin on joining the Mess. We also extend greetings on joining us on transfer to C/Sgt. Windley, R.E.M.E., Sgt. Smith and Sgt. Garrett.

Finally, we must make mention of our Falling Plate team consisting of three Mess members aided by Cpl. Cullerton, which won the Brigade Competition, and reached the semi-final in the Divisional Meeting out of 49 entries.

"B" COMPANY

We have been encouraged by rising numbers of suitable recruits and can now boast a father and son (Sgt. and Pte. Wright) as well as an uncle (ex R.M.) and nephew. We still have vacancies for plenty more volunteers, particularly at Chelmsford, which is now our H.Q., as it was thought fitting that we should be represented in the County Town. We have made a promising start with Cpl. Cullerton (ex Parachute Regiment) whose service dates back to Arnhem and before, originating with the Irish Army, and are looking forward to rapidly acquiring a workable strength as befits our new palatial quarters.

Capt. Critten has had to resign due to business reasons and we welcome Capt. "Dicky" Doyle as our new 2 i/c with 2/Lt. Stewart from "D" Company. 2/Lts. Stoddart (Queen's) and Dentith (Manchesters) on attachment, bring us into a strong position for officers.

Having six members in the Battalion Rifle Team augers well for our chances at the forthcoming Battalion meeting. Our recruits are shaping well on the range and one (Pte. Gurteen) took his place in the Company .22 team which won the T.A.R.A. League with an undefeated record. Another soldier on the target was Pte. Jackson, a recent recruit, who was top goal scorer for the Battalion Soccer Team during the past season.

Pte. Thurkettle has discovered other marksmen and has raised a Darts Team which has "shot" against several local pubs and has emulated the riflemen's successes in a series of pleasant social evenings. Sgt. Knights, saw that our Christmas Dance was up to its usual standard and several members, including Mr. Prior, our hard working barman (honorary) put in a lot of hard work.

Major Purves was fortunate in parading with the Gurkha Brigade at the Royal Review in Buckingham Palace and was able to invite Capt. Barnes and R.S.M. Luscombe as spectators.

"C" COMPANY

Since the beginning of 1961 the activities of the Company have gained impetus. At last the tide of recruiting—the most vital aspect of the Territorial Army—is changing and there is now a gradual flow of recruits. This cannot be attributed to any magic, but to a sustained effort over a long period and a change in public response. We have shown ourselves in local towns and villages and there are many more to come. Our great problem will now be to ensure that Territorial service is of first-class interest and worthwhile. This year's training theme has been Civil Defence and considerable interest has been engendered, including even the lowering of the O.C. strapped on a stretcher from a second-floor window to test the efficiency of the training: we are glad to say that this was proved.

The Company has just taken over a Centre at Harlow New Town and already Lt. Tim Millbank and Sgt. Ken Percy are hard at work there. We welcome to this Centre Sgt. Freemantle and Cpl. Holmes and Wellard, both from the former Unit at the Centre. They are engaged in "shock" tactics for recruiting in the area and some of their efforts could be likened unto naval recruiting of past centuries. At Epping, 2/Lts. Jefferis and Green are working on their platoons and getting to know their new men, including Ptes. Day and White who have just returned having served with us some years ago during their National Service. C/Sgt. Ron Dowler and Pte. M. Ward (who is already challenging his father, Sgt. Ward, as a Battalion Shot) are both to be congratulated as members of the Battalion Team which has won the Divisional .22 Championship. C/Sgt. Dowler has just received his Territorial Army Efficiency Medal. To our P.S.I., Sgt. B. Hutchinson, and his family, we wish them good luck in the future, and we welcome in his place Sgt. T. Culling who will soon unravel the mysteries of Territorial Service and, we hope, have an enjoyable tour. Sgt. Colin Brickstock and his wife have our good wishes on the birth of a daughter and if rumours are correct our next contribution to these Notes may well have to be devoted to this subject.

"D" COMPANY

The usual Journal Notes missive filtering down through devious channels and Red Indian ambushes and arriving at our headquarters the day after a reply is required, sets the Company Scribe madly setting pen to paper and racking a tired brain for inspiration.

Six months is quite sufficient to delve back into and a sad item of news leaps straight to mind. The closing of Saffron Walden T.A.C., following hard on the heels of that of Halstead, struck a dismal chord as the period opened. This has resulted in the inevitable loss of a number of our stalwarts including Cpl. Start, L/Cpl. Curtis, L/Cpl. Harris, Pte. Swan, Pte. Honeybell, Pte. Street and others. But with the dying of Saffron Walden both Dunmow and Braintree, our surviving centres of resistance, blossomed forth and many new names have been added to our roll since the last list appeared in this magazine. P.S.I.s have come and gone too since the year started. Sgt. Evans goes to Berlin, Sgt. Hazelwood takes over for a short period and now Sgt. Simmons, fresh from the warmth of Malaya, steps into the breach. We wish him luck. (who said "Jack"!).

The social front has produced the usual crop of socials which were, generally speaking, well attended. A Rummage Sale, run by the Dunmow Platoon, came as a new venture and, though not so well supported, produced 7 gns. for the always lacking Company funds. The Annual Dinner at Christmas was an enormous success and, again, much work was carried out by the Dunmowites. Still in the lighter vein mention must be made of a regular activity that takes place on Friday nights at Dunmow T.A.C. This is a Sports night, run by Cpl. Easterbrook, and most popular is this turning out to be. The Dunmow Canteen is undergoing a face lift and a most imposing room is resulting. All the work and money is being, found by the Company, though we are hoping for a little assistance with the latter.

Training has evolved mainly round the theme of Civil Defence and a visitor to any drill hall runs serious risk of being lashed to a stretcher or mildly punctured to see how he bleeds. A Battalion Exercise on the Stanford P.T.A. gave us a rest from these less soldier-like activities and the Company, under the leadership of Lt. T. C. B. Swayne, spent a night with nature under the stars. Nature was obviously not impressed and produced the only snowstorm of the season in retaliation. Camp 1961 looms up before us and the "D" Company "Braves" are enthusiastically preparing their wigwams for an onslaught upon the tranquil inhabitants of the unfortunate Lake District. But more about this in the next issue.

"S" COMPANY

Since camp last year we are proud of the fact that we have increased our numbers by one-third, and although recruiting has fallen off for the moment it is intended that we shall make a further effort before camp. Our star recruiter is Pte. Colin Dowsett, who, in his quiet way, can always sell the T.A. to his friends although it is a pity that for various reasons some of his potential recruits have not been enlisted, in some cases they were under age and so we hope to absorb them later. This reminds the writer that Mrs. Edwards, our P.S.I.'s wife, presented her husband with a third son last month, so we have yet another potential recruit although probably for the Regular Battalion—congratulations, Sgt. and Mrs. Edwards. Whilst we are offering congratulations we should like to mention three names, Sgts. Manwaring and Bushell and Cpl. Verdon, all of whom have been recently awarded the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal. Pte. Thacker was recently discharged on his entry into the Royal Air Force and we wish him good luck.

Capt. Amey, our Mortar Platoon Company, recently attended a mortar course for one week at Netheravon which we understand he found most enjoyable.

One of our current regrets is that we have not been able to take our place in the Battalion Boxing Team. Ptes. Barker and Weekes made a special effort in this direction together with other men of this Company, but the difficulty seems to be that most of the Battalion's fit young men are all the same weight.

"H.Q." COMPANY

Since our last report, we have been trying to acquire some knowledge of Civil Defence in preparation for our Annual Training at Millom, which promises to be interesting. At least, we are satisfied that our members can now deal with "Accidents in the Home."

We welcome ex C.S.M. Garrett and Cpl. Price from 10th Parachute Bn. (T.A.), and hope their stay with us will be happy and interesting. Recruiting is going well, but we still welcome those interested on any Monday or Thursday evening at Iford T.A. Centre, Gordon Fields. Ex-members will know that we provide a good "brew" in the canteen.

We look forward to a busy and interesting "summer season" and will no doubt have a full report for the next issue.

The Essex Army Cadet Force

The Essex Army Cadet Force Boxing Championships were held in the Essex Yeomanry Drill Hall, Chelmsford, on November 26, 1960. There were 71 entries.

The result of the Inter-Regiment Team Trophy was:—

1st	6th Essex Cadet Regiment (H.Q. Chelmsford)	27
-----	--	----

2nd	2nd Essex Cadet Regiment (H.Q. Dagenham)	14
3rd	7th Essex Cadet Regiment (H.Q. Southend)	11
4th	4th Essex Cadet Regiment (H.Q.) Iford)	10
5th	3rd Essex Cadet Regiment (H.Q. Brentwood)	4

In the Eastern Command A.C.F. Boxing Championships which were held at Hertford on January 7, 1961, the Essex A.C.F. retained the Inter-County Herapath Trophy with a score of 50 points. A team of eight Cadets from The Essex Army Cadet Force took part in the A.C.F. South National Boxing Championships Semi-Finals at Taunton on January 28, and gave a good account of themselves against some very strong opposition, chiefly from Glamorgan, who considered their team was their best for at least ten years. Three Cadets took part in the National A.C.F. Boxing Finals which were held at York on February 18. One of these, Cadet J. Nicklen of the Rainham Detachment of the 2nd Essex Cadet Regiment became National Champion in Class "A," 7st. 7lb. In the Inter-County Championships, Essex was placed equal fourth with four points.

The Cross Country Championships were held at Chelmsford on February 11 and the Junior Race produced a very close finish.

The final of the Inter-Detachment Soccer Competition took place at Chelmsford on April 9, 1961. It was between the Chelmsford Troop of the 6th Essex Cadet Regiment and the Becontree Platoon of the 4th Essex Cadet Regiment. The latter won by eight goals.

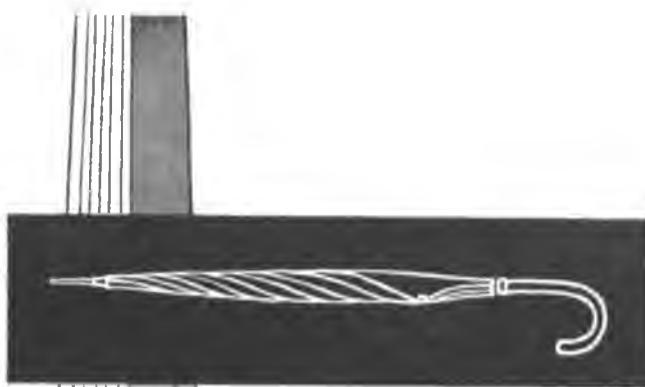

The Annual .22 Rifle Meeting was held at Warley Barracks on April 23. Despite rainy conditions there was some good shooting particularly by the 4th Essex Cadet Regiment whose H.Q.s are at Ilford.

REGIMENTAL REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY
Bedford, November 20, 1960

Although Regimental Remembrance Sunday on November 20, 1960, followed the pattern which has now become traditional, there were several aspects of the day's ceremonies which served to make it a unique occasion. It had become obvious that, since the disbandment of the Depot of the 16th Foot, the Gymnasium was no longer a suitable venue for a Remembrance Service. It was therefore decided that this should be held in the Church of the Transfiguration at Kempston. Extra chairs were provided and the church was filled to capacity by the large congregation of Officers, Comrades and their families.

At 11 a.m. the Colonel of the Regiment, Lieut.-General Sir Reginald F. S. Denning, K.B.E., C.B., D.L., entered the church accompanied by the Associate Colonel, Brigadier C. M. Paton, C.V.O., C.B.E., T.D. The playing of "Valse Destiny" by the Band of the 5th Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.) was the signal for the Regimental Colours of the 5th Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.) and the 1st Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.) to be marched down the aisle and handed to the Chaplain, who draped them on the Altar. Branch Standards followed and were placed on either side. The Service then began, conducted by the Reverend H. John, M.B.E., Vicar of Kempston, who was assisted by the Reverend K. P. Lingard, curate of the church. During the Remembrance, the Colonel of the Regiment read the Roll of our Comrades who had died since the last Remembrance Service. The Service ended with the Regimental Prayer and Blessing, after which the Regimental Colours were handed back to the Colour Officers and Branch Standards to the bearers. We all felt that the Reverend John's inspiring address and the solemnity of the church had greatly enhanced the dignity of our Remembrance Service.

The weather was a little unkind as we left the church and a shower of rain delayed the start of the March Past for a few moments. However, it was an imposing and splendid column which set off down the main road to Kempston Barracks. At the head was the combined Band of The 5th Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.) and The 1st Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.) whose future amalgamation had been announced a few days earlier. Behind them came The Regimental Colours and detachments of these Regiments and then the Comrades of The Regiment proudly marching behind their Branch Standards. The Colonel of The Regiment, accompanied by The Associate Colonel, took the Salute at the entrance to the Addison Howard Park. The marching column continued down the road to form up opposite The Regimental Memorial in readiness for the Wreath Laying Ceremony. As soon as the Colours and Standards were in position, "Last Post" was sounded from the top of the Keep. After a short pause "Reveille" rang out, played by The Corps of Drums of The 5th Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.). The Colonel of The Regiment and The Associate Colonel then went forward together to lay the first of the many wreaths.

At the end of the wreath laying, the Reverend John moved into the Garden of Remembrance, leading in procession The Colonel of The Regiment, The Associate Colonel, Col. G. A. Anstee, O.B.E., M.C., J.P., D.L., Lt.-Col. A. C. Young and Major D. T. Tewkesbury, M.B.E. Here took place the unveiling and dedication of a Plaque on the Garden Wall. This commemorates the fact that the wall was erected as a surround to our Garden of Remembrance through the generous legacy of the late Brigadier J. S. Davenport, C.B.E., M.C. It also records the names of those former Comrades whose ashes have been scattered in The Garden.

This concluded the official Remembrance ceremonies and guests dispersed to the Officers' Mess and Social Club of The 5th Bedfordshire Regiment (T.A.) for light refreshments. As so often in the past, many had travelled long distances to be in Bedford that day. We were particularly glad to see Major G. C. Gaden, M.C., who was on a temporary visit to this country from his home in Australia and who took the opportunity of laying a wreath at our Memorial.

During the afternoon one further solemn ceremony took place, the scattering of the Ashes of the late Mr. W. Peak whose death was reported in the last issue of this Journal. This was conducted by the Reverend John and, in addition to Mrs. Peak and her family, was attended by members of the London Branch of which Mr. Peak had been a founder member.

So ended another eventful Remembrance Sunday and as we left the Barracks later that day we saw in the flood-lighting our Regimental Memorial reflecting all its dignity and pride.

NOTES FROM BRANCHES

1/5 "YELLOW DEVILS," 1914-1918 O.C.A.

The Annual General Meeting of the 1/5 Bedfordshire O.C.A. ("Yellow Devils") was held in the Drill Hall, Luton, in March, when Mr. C. W. Gilder presided over a well-attended meeting. The Hon. Secretary, Mr. J. Ward, reported that since the last meeting, Mr. Harry Ashby, one of the oldest members of the Branch, and who recently celebrated his 81st birthday, had passed away, bringing the total number of Comrades who have died in the past twelve months, including our President, Arthur Pakes, to eight. Suitable tribute was paid to their memories. After the routine business of the previous month's meeting had been transacted, the Secretary read the minutes of the last A.G.M. He stated that the annual reunion dinner had to be cancelled owing to lack of support, but several outings had been arranged, including a visit to Vice-President Arthur Brookes, Mine Host of the Lord Nelson at Southwold. Arrangements for similar outings were to be made again for the current year. The statement of accounts for the year ending February 28, 1961, had been circulated to all members, and revealed a very healthy financial state. Mr. A. Walker, the Hon. Treasurer, in presenting the report, pointed out that exclusive of the wonderful gift of £200 from the defunct Services Welfare Comforts Fund, there was a slight increase in income over expenditure on the year's working, despite the fact that the benevolent grants to Comrades was the highest in the Branch's history. The Chairman, in moving the adoption of the balance sheet and report, congratulated the Treasurer on the excellent way he had prepared and presented the accounts. There was no doubt that it was an excellent report and revealed the continued financial strength of the Branch. It was all the more credit to the members in view of the diminishing numbers, which, unfortunately, is inevitable in such an organisation as ours. He specially welcomed the increase in the amount paid out to Comrades in distress.

Mr. C. W. Gilder, who was unanimously elected President, and who, incidentally, is the youngest member of the Branch, thanked the members for their confidence and stated he would endeavour to maintain the high standard set by the late President, Arthur Pakes.

Other officers elected were as follows: Chairman, Mr. G. Brown; Hon. Secretary, Mr. J. Ward; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. A. Walker; Benevolent Representative, Mr. J. King. Committee:

Messrs. F. King, J. Land, B. Cox, G. Davies and H. Smith.

Mr. Jack Land asked to be relieved of his responsibilities as Sick Visitor, owing to ill health, and his resignation was accepted with regret and tribute paid to him for his excellent services in the past. Mr. J. Ward volunteered to combine this office with his Secretarial duties, and Mr. Land agreed to help him as far as he could. Mr. C. W. Gilder agreed to continue as Regimental Journal Correspondent.

A collection for the Benevolent Funds raised £1/10/-.

HERTFORD

The Annual General Meeting was held at the Drill Hall, St. Andrew Street, Hertford, on November 11, 1960. Our President, Major R. P. Connell, presided, and the meeting was well attended. The annual report and balance sheet for the financial year was presented and passed, and showed that the Branch was flourishing and in a sound financial position. At the election of officers, resignations were submitted and accepted from our President, Major R. P. Connell, and from our most popular Secretary, Mr. Charlie Mansfield. Both these officers have done sterling work on behalf of the Branch during their term of office, and their resignations were accepted with great regret. Charlie Mansfield was a founder-member of the Branch and has been actively concerned with the running of it during the 25 years of its existence. His experience and advice will be sadly missed by all of us, but we are happy to report that he has accepted the position of Hon. General Secretary, a position which will enable him to keep in active contact with the running of Branch affairs and will give us the benefit of his vast experience and advice. He has, in fact, attended all our monthly meetings since the A.G.M., and his presence has been a source of great help and encouragement to his young successor, Mr. C. Payne. A vote of thanks was proposed and unanimously seconded to these two stalwarts who have done so much to bring the Branch to the sound and healthy position it now enjoys.

The following officers were elected to fill the vacancies caused by these retirements: President, Major J. S. Townsend; Chairman, Mr. R. A. Farnham; Vice-Chairman, Mr. O. F. Stanford; Secretary, Mr. C. Payne.

All the other members of the Committee were re-elected en bloc.

The children's annual Christmas party was held at the Drill Hall, St. Andrew Street, on Saturday, January 7, 1961. Despite the clash of dates with the Ware Branch, who were holding their own children's party on this day, and the fact that several of our children have now passed the age for kiddies' parties, 42 children turned up for their annual "do," and in their own words, "a good time was had by all." The children were welcomed by members of the Committee, and after tea were entertained to a film show kindly presented and arranged by the President, Major J. S. Townsend. The party was graced by the presence of their Worships The Mayor and Mayoress of Hertford, who kindly presented a gift, plus oranges and sweets, to each child at the end of the party.

Our annual social and games tournament was held at the Shire Hall, Hertford, on Saturday, February 4, 1961, and despite a somewhat disappointing attendance, due mainly to clashing of dates, a very enjoyable evening was spent by all those present. The President's Cup was won by the Royal Naval Association and the music was provided by the Ambassadors Dance Band. Dancing and the usual "get-together" went on until midnight and all proclaimed that it was a splendid evening. Our thanks go to the work and untiring efforts of our Committee for making all these social events such a tremendous success. Monthly social evenings have been held at the Drill Hall, Hertford, on the first Saturday of each month throughout the winter. These have been well attended and enjoyed by all. We are discontinuing these during the summer months, but hope to restart them again later in the year.

The highlight of our social activities this year was the occasion of our 25th Jubilee Anniversary Dinner and Dance, which took place at the Shire Hall, Hertford, on Saturday, April 8, 1961. In the hall, magnificently decorated for the occasion, the President, Major J. S. Townsend, was in the chair and 138 members, their wives and guests sat down to dinner. Among our many guests were their Worships the Mayor and Mayoress of Hertford; Lieut.-General Sir Reginald F. S. Denning, K.B.E., C.B., D.L., Colonel of the Regiment; Lt.-Col. C. Simmons, Commanding 1st Bn. The Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.); Lt.-Col. A. C. Young, Regimental Secretary, The 3rd East Anglian Regiment; Major D. T. Tewkesbury, M.B.E., Secretary, The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment Association; Alderman and Councillor, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Alderman D. Dye, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. J. H. Busby, Capt. G. B. Spicer, the Rev. G. C. P. H. Briggs, Major W. D. Willard. We were also especially pleased to welcome representatives from the following branches: London, Bedford, Ware, Watford, St. Albans, 8th Bn. 1939-45 War and the Royal Naval Association. A special welcome was afforded to our South African Veterans, Mr. R. Woods, aged 78, Mr. A. Merryweather aged 78, and Mr. H. Harman aged 77. The guests were welcomed on their arrival by the President and his wife.

During the evening telegrams were read out from Her Majesty The Queen and our Colonel-in-Chief, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, in reply to messages of loyal greetings sent earlier. A message was also received and read out from our late President, Major R. P. Connell, who is seriously ill in Hertford County Hospital, a message of good wishes for a speedy recovery was sent to him in reply. Loyal toasts to Her Majesty the Queen, and our Colonel-in-Chief, Her Majesty The Queen Mother, were proposed by the President, who also proposed the toast to "Absent Comrades."

General Sir Reginald Denning in proposing the toast of The Regiment, gave us up-to-date news of the Regiment's activities overseas and of the Territorial Battalions. He congratulated the Branch on reaching its 25th anniversary, and also paid a moving tribute to our retiring Secretary, Mr. Charlie Mansfield. Lt.-Col. J. H. Busby, in a very witty speech, proposed the toast to "The Hertford Branch," and also thanked us for a wonderful evening. The toast of "Our Guests" was proposed by the President, who briefly welcomed all our guests individually, and hoped that they would have an enjoyable time with us.

After dinner the President paid a short tribute to our retiring Secretary, Mr. Charlie Mansfield, in which he expressed the thanks and appreciation of the Branch for his splendid work and untiring efforts during the past 25 years. General Sir Reginald Denning then made a small presentation to Mr. Mansfield on behalf of the Branch. Mr. Mansfield, in replying, thanked the Branch for their gift, and although regretting his retirement, promised to give all in his power to further the interest and welfare of the Branch in the future. General Denning then handed over to the Branch two very fine pieces of Regimental silver, which are to be permanently held on loan. The President in accepting these, thanked General Denning and stated that they would always occupy a proud and honoured position among our other trophies. The company then broke up for the usual "get-together" and dancing to the music of the Ambassadors Band. We would like to tender our sincere thanks to the following for helping to make the evening such a huge success and one that will long be remembered by members and guests alike: The Mayflower Catering Co., for an excellent dinner and for providing such magnificent floral decorations. Lt.-Col. Simmons for the loan of many fine pieces of Regimental silver, which made our top table look like a Lord Mayor's banquet. To Mr. Raymond, of Hertfordsbury, for making and presenting to the Branch the really magnificent birthday cake; this cake, complete with Regimental Badge done in icing, was a centre of attraction and admiration. It was later raffled, and the Branch funds benefited considerably from the proceeds. Sgt. F. Fairclough, of the Watford Branch, for providing the banner with the Regimental Badge and finished with the Regimental Colours, which made such an admirable background to our top table. To Mr. Joe Farnham, our Chairman, and his Committee for their untiring efforts and for all their excellent arrangements. To Mr. Lines, of the London Branch, for obtaining for us the presentation gifts of cigarettes and matches. And lastly, to all our guests for coming along and gracing us with their presence; it was nice having you, and we can only hope that you enjoyed our company as much as we enjoyed yours.

WATFORD

Since the last issue of The Journal, the Branch has been carrying on in its usual manner. Our annual Christmas Bottle Draw was again very successful in helping Branch finances and many Comrades' wives went home happily with pockets bulging with bottles of "this and that." Also on the same evening, one of our members of the Ladies Section, Mrs. R. Nobbs, gave the Branch a beautifully embroidered set for a raffle. This is just one instance of the support we receive from the ladies.

The Branch A.G.M. was held at the Drill Hall in February, and we were very pleased to see our popular President, Capt. J. S. Payne, who made the long trip from Bournemouth, and also one of our Vice-Presidents, Lt.-Col. C. Simmons, who came over from the other side of the County to be with us. It was a successful meeting, and it was good to see several Comrades who had made the effort to be with us, even though they had long distances to travel, and we think this emphasises the spirit within the Branch.

In March the Branch had the honour of welcoming a new Branch Padre, the Rev. A. A. G. Richards, who we were very pleased to meet at our last meeting, and we know that he will become a great asset to the Branch. After the meeting "Dixie" Dean and company introduced him to the game of darts and the Padre showed his paces amongst the Branch "champs."

Our regular Tombola sessions are still a good source of revenue at the week-ends, and silence reigns until a member gets those 15 elusive numbers on his or her card, and while the lucky person collects their winnings, there is the scramble to the bar to replenish the empty glasses. At the time of writing, we are hoping to make another trip to Bournemouth in the near future, where many spent a grand day with Capt. J. S. Payne last year.

ST. ALBANS

The Branch has lost one of its oldest members, Mr. C. Hyde, who died on April 18 at the age of 80. A founder-member of the Branch, he took a great part in the activities of the Branch in its early days. His obituary notice appears elsewhere in this number.

The 16th Foot's Regimental Plot at the Field of Remembrance, Westminster Abbey, November, 1960.

Messrs. Windmill and Howe represented the Branch on the occasion of the opening ceremony of The Field of Remembrance at Westminster Abbey in November, 1960. They took the photograph of the Regimental Plot, which appears in these columns. Twelve members went to Bedford for the annual Remembrance Service and Parade, and met many old friends.

ANNUAL REUNION DINNER

On December 10, 1960, the Branch held a reunion dinner, eighteen members, including the President, Lt.-Col. J. H. Busby, M.B.E., and the Vice-President, Capt. W. G. Cann, attended. All enjoyed themselves very much. The Hon. Secretary, this year, had arranged that members could begin paying into the dinner fund in January, thus, when the time for the dinner came, there was a much smaller amount to pay. All agreed it was a very sound scheme.

At the Annual General Meeting, the officers and Committee were re-elected en bloc.

The monthly meetings have been well attended, and after the business of the meeting has been completed, games and a social are held. Donations, in the form of "Bun Pennies," have come in well for the Branch Benevolent Fund, the chief contributors being Messrs. Windmill, Howe, Hale and Starkins.

The Branch sends its greetings to Cpl. M. Smith and his family, now serving with the 1st Battalion; Cpl. Smith is a member of the Branch. They hope to see him soon.

BEDFORD

The Branch held its Annual General Meeting at Kempston Barracks, in the 5th Bn. Bedfordshire Regiment Social Club on Friday, February 3, 1961. The attendance was not up to our usual standard because quite a lot of members were absent due to sickness, including our President, Lt.-Col. E. G. Fanning, M.C., D.L. The officers were re-elected en bloc, which means that our indefatigable Secretary, Mr. C. C. Wells, has again undertaken to serve in his many capacities for another year. We all thank him for the help that he has given to the Regimental Association in general, and to the Bedford Branch in particular.

MONTHLY MEETINGS

We continue to hold our monthly meetings on the first Friday in the month at Kempston Barracks, thanks to Major W. J. Darville, whilst the Bedford Detachment, T.A., has its H.Q. there. We have an option on a room in the Bedford United Services Club on the second Friday in the month, if we have to leave our old Depot. One thing is certain, we shall continue to meet somewhere, and we extend a warm welcome to all serving and ex-serving members of The Regiment. We look forward to our next muster of ex-members of The Regiment at the annual Regimental Weekend.

We have now come to the end of this year's games season, and the Branch have acquitted themselves well in the Bedford United Services' Games League. We just failed to win the "Arnold Cup," so have to be content with the "Runners-up" Cup. At darts, we have also got the "Runners-up" Cup. At cribbage, we have to be content with third place, but we have won the Dominoes Cup. We must congratulate Jim Pithers on winning the Individual Crib Trophy, and Charlie Kentish on being runner-up in the Dominoes Individual. The team and reserves, who have turned up for all matches, must be congratulated on their efforts, these being Mr. C. C. Wells (captain), Mr. H. Willmott, "Wally" Folds, Bill Diemer, R.S.M. V. Herd, Frank Boutwood, Jim Pithers, George Shirley, Charlie Kentish, Bert Askew and Mr. D. Hammond. The presentation of prizes took place at the B.U.S.A. Club on Friday, April 28, and a very good evening was had by all.

The Luton Branch annual dinner at the Town Hall, Luton, Saturday, January 21, 1961.

HITCHIN

On November 11, 1960, a party of members with their wives and friends went to the Saffron Walden Branch of The Essex Regiment Association for a social evening, which they all very much enjoyed. The Branch was represented at the annual Remembrance Service and Parade, held at Kempston Barracks, on Sunday, November 20, 1960. Members of the Branch also attended the annual reunion dinners of the Luton and Ware Branches, and both functions were very enjoyable.

The Annual General Meeting was held at the Drill Hall on Sunday, February 26. The Chairman, Colonel Cooper, gave an encouraging report on the Branch's activities. After the election of officers for the coming year, the accounts were presented by the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. E. Foster. These showed that the finances of the Branch were in a healthy state.

The monthly meetings are now held on the last Thursday in each month.

LUTON

The Branch annual dinner was held at the Town Hall, Luton, on Saturday, January 21, 1961. Although a few old familiar faces were missing, there was a good attendance, and a very happy evening was enjoyed by all present. The guests included members from the Branches, the Regimental Secretary and Mrs. Alan Young, and the Secretary of the Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment Association and Mrs. Derek Tewkesbury. During the evening the Regimental Secretary handed to the President, the late Major L. Barford, the two pieces of Regimental silver of the 16th Foot, which had been selected to be placed on loan to the Branch. The President accepted them with gratitude and stated they would be held with pride by the Branch.

The sudden death of the President, Major Lance Barford, which occurred on February 3, was a great shock. The news of his death, which is reported more fully in the Obituary Column of this number, was followed by the sad report of the deaths of Mr. F. Rac, on February 4, and Mr. H. Brown on February 8. They were both stalwart members of the Branch, and they and the late President will be much missed.

MONTHLY MEETINGS

The Committee would like to see more members attending the monthly meetings. The new Chairman is Mr. P. Rogers, and all members wish him good luck and pledge their loyal support to make his term of office a great success.

6th BATTALION THE BEDFORDSHIRE REGIMENT (1914-1918) O.C.A.

ANNUAL REUNION DINNER

The annual reunion dinner was held on Saturday, April 29, 1961, at the Bath House Hotel, Dean Street, London, W.I. Colonel A. T. Hitch, D.S.O., the President, took the chair, and the guests were the Regimental Secretary, Lt.-Col. A. C. Young, the Secretary, the 16th Foot Regimental Association, Major D. T. Tewkesbury, M.B.E., Messrs. J. V. Hackman and "Ginger" Butler. Twenty-two members were present, and a special welcome was given to Messrs. Worth and Green, who were attending the reunion dinner for the first time for many years. Mr. Vic Craddock acted as Toastmaster. The Loyal Toasts were proposed by the President, Colonel Hitch. A message of loyal greetings had been sent to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, Colonel-in-Chief, on behalf of the members present, and Her Majesty's gracious reply was read out at the dinner and received with acclamation by all present. The toast to "Absent Comrades" was proposed by the President, and before giving the toast. Colonel Hitch referred to the death of Mr. Cyril Bliss.

Mr. Craddock proposed the toast to the President, and Colonel Hitch, in his reply, thanked the members for their good wishes and loyal support. Mr. Harold Long, M.M., then proposed the toast to "The Guests," which was responded to by the Regimental Secretary. In his reply, Colonel Young thanked the President and members of the Branch on his and the other guests' behalf for their kindly hospitality. He then gave a very interesting account of the activities of The Regiment. He stressed the importance of recruiting and asked those present whenever the opportunity occurred, to do all they could to assist in obtaining recruits for the Regiment. Mr. Johnny Day, the Hon. Secretary, to whom several well-deserved tributes had been paid during the evening, then spoke of the sad loss of Mr. Cyril Bliss, who had been a founder member of the Branch and a great Comrade. His Obituary appears elsewhere in this Journal. His death was a tragic loss, and he would be much missed. Mr. Day also paid tribute to the late Mr. W. Wells, who died on April 2, 1961; he was Post Corporal with the Battalion during the 1914-1918 War. Mr. Day then spoke of his gratitude for the support members gave him, which enabled the annual reunion to be held. He expressed the hope that all members who were on the sick list would make a speedy recovery and be with them next year. He concluded by stating that a suggestion had been put forward regarding the possibility of their O.C.A. amalgamating with the 7th (S) Bn. The Bedfordshire Regiment (1914-1918) O.C.A. and the 8th Bn. The Bedfordshire Regiment (1914-1918) O.C.A., but so far no progress had been made with the idea.

The remainder of the evening was spent informally, and many reminiscences were exchanged.

The annual reunion dinner for 1962 will be held on Saturday, April 28.

6th BATTALION (1939-1945) O.C.A.

It is with the deepest regret we report the passing of our esteemed Chairman, Major L. I. Barford T.D., who died suddenly on February 3. Major Barford joined the 6th Battalion as a subaltern on its formation at Luton in September, 1939, and left the Battalion at Swarland Hall, Northumberland, for traffic-control duties with Northern Command, in March, 1941. He assumed the Chairmanship of our Association in 1949, and by his cheery nature and keen interest shown in all our activities, was a most popular figure among members.

Our reunion this year will consist of a dinner-dance at the Euston Tavern, London, on Saturday, September 30, 1961. This departure from the normal "stag" form was by popular vote at our last annual general meeting in May, 1960, and will be our first mixed venture. In choosing a date in the autumn and by including the ladies, it is hoped the attendance will show a marked improvement on that of recent years, thus making our annual event secure, both in following and interest. Whether the mixed function is repeated annually or we revert to "stag," depends entirely on the outcome of this gathering, and it is hoped members will get together on reunion night, be they "single" or "double," and make the venture a great success. Details will be dispatched in due course to our regular members, but any former Comrades who have been out of touch for some years, may enquire of the Hon. Secretary, F. G. Sugars, 5, Cowridge Crescent, Luton, Beds

The Essex Regiment Association

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting of the Association will be held at the reunion of The 3rd East Anglian Regiment (16th/44th Foot) at Gordon Fields, Ilford, on Saturday, July 15, at 4.15 p.m.

The meeting will be asked to agree to certain alterations to the existing rules which have become necessary as a result of the amalgamation of The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment and The Essex Regiment.

NOTES FROM BRANCHES

(ASSOCIATION OF SERGEANTS (PAST AND PRESENT) ALL BATTALIONS THE ESSEX REGIMENT (44th/56th FOOT)

The report of the Annual General Meeting will be published in the next number of The Journal.

4th BN. COMRADES' ASSOCIATION

Since our last notes to The Wasp and the Eagle, the Association has had an informal reunion at the "Prince of Wales," at Buckhurst Hill, on March 24; as usual, a fair number of members reported for "duty," and it was a good night. On the following Sunday, a number of Comrades laid a wreath on the Cenotaph in memory of our Fallen Comrades of two world wars, the parade was led by our Chairman, Lt.-Col. D. F. Garrard, T.D. A telegram was sent by the younger members of the Association to the "Gaza" Officers, who held their annual dinner at the Trocadero on Monday, March 27. For the younger members it was a great honour to be joined for a brief moment with those "old sweats," whom we all respect so much.

Our congratulations on the magnificent efforts of the Battalion on its .22 Shooting and to R.S.M. Luscombe on his new Sergeants' Mess. The Annual Reunion this year will be held in October, and members will be notified when a firm date is fixed.

We are sorry to report the passing of two of our members, Mr. J. L. Douthwaite (1914-18) and Mr. H. Golding (1939-1945). Both were dear friends and known to many of us.

An obituary notice in respect of Mr. Golding appears elsewhere in this Journal. Mr. Douthwaite's notice appeared in the December, 1960 number.

6th BATTALION COMRADES' ASSOCIATION, "CEDARS" O.C.A.

One O.C.A. which keeps going is Essex T.A. "Cedars"—the old 6th Essex. Their successors, 459 Regiment, H.A.A., R.A. (T.A.), always make them welcome and at their annual dinner at Vange on December 10, 1960, a dozen old boys sat down to a good meal. The younger serving men made them feel at home and as they stayed for the week-end they had the pleasant experience of the Captain Quartermaster bringing them an early morning cup of tea. On Sunday morning they attended Church Parade and stayed to lunch. Some 1914-18 men had travelled more than 40 miles to be there.

The next meeting—at Warley on March 5—had a note of sadness. It was the last parade of the 459 Regiment before turning over to form 300 Regiment. After the Service in the Regimental Chapel, where the band played the hymns, the Regiment and Old Comrades of the 6th and 7th Battalions were inspected by Colonel Sir John Ruggles-Brise, Lord Lieutenant for Essex. A special refreshment hut was arranged for Old Comrades and their wives. Some did a round trip of 86 miles.

On March 25, the day before Gaza Day, the Annual Reunion Dinner was held at the T.A. Centre, East Ham. Our Chairman, Major J. D. Castle, was unfortunately not able to be with us as he was suffering from mumps, and our President, Col. Sir John Ruggles-Brise, was also unable to attend. We were, however, very pleased to have Brigadier C. M. Paton, Associate Colonel of The 3rd East Anglian Regiment with us, and also Major T. R. Stead, Secretary of The Essex Regiment Association. A number of old friends of 459 Regiment were present, and Old Comrades were promised that the new Regiment would continue to welcome them.

The Secretary, Mr. G. W. Leaford, made a short report and regretted the passing of George Starns only one week after retirement.

"THE EAGLE AND GUN" REGIMENTAL ASSOCIATION

This Association has just concluded another year's work and many thanks are due to the C.O. of the "Rough Riders" at the T.A. Centre, Forest Lodge, Whipps Cross, London, E.17, for allowing us to still hold our meetings, parades and functions at his Unit Headquarters. A change is now taking place and the "Rough Riders" are being amalgamated with the "Inns of Court." The C.O., Col. D. Thompson, M.C., T.D., has already intimated that he wishes us to carry on as previously and we are certainly very pleased to hear this.

We held our usual parade on Remembrance Sunday and were supported by representatives of the Old Contemptibles, British Legion, Army Cadet Force, 3rd East Anglian Field Ambulance, 12 Squadron Air Force Cadets, and St. John Ambulance Brigade. The Rev. C. A. Fox kindly officiated at this service.

Our membership is still quite good, we have at present over 300 paid-up members, plus quite a few on our books who may come along in the near future and pay their subs. The passing of the years inevitably calls for recording the passing of more of our Old Comrades, including Messrs. J. E. Burland, P. W. Bartrip, H. Harniman and G. Hunt, all of whom were very good comrades and who were keen and interested in our Association.

The Annual Reunion Dinner of the 1/7th Battalion took place on Saturday, October 1, 1960, at "The Mitre," Chancery Lane, London. About 40 old members turned up on this occasion. Our oldest member, now rising 87, Sergeant T. Williams, was able to travel from Westcliff and attend. This dinner is always arranged by Mr. W. F. Marr, of 64, Highlands Heath, Putney, S.W.16. Date of next Dinner has been arranged for October 7, 1961.

The Gaza Sunday Service was arranged to take place at Warley on Sunday, March 5, 1961, and some fifty or so of our members attended to join those of 6th "Cedars" O.C.A. The weather was certainly very good and attendance at the Chapel was excellent; it was really a wonderful gathering of the "Old and Bold."

SAFFRON WALDEN

The considerable activities during the winter months have been very capably organised by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. C. H. King, and his enthusiastic and hard working committee. On November 12 a most successful evening was held on the occasion of the Annual Reunion and Social at the Drill Hall. Some 300 members and their wives enjoyed a grand mixture of entertainment. The M.C., Mr. K. C. Clayden, was in sparkling form, and there were more than thirty lucky winners of raffle prizes which ranged from a canteen of cutlery to boxes of fancy toilet soaps. We were very glad to welcome a coach-load of Comrades from the Hitchin Branch of The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment Association and we hope to receive the promised invitation to visit them at Hitchin in the near future.

As most of our readers will know, much of the credit for the success of the Branch is due to the efforts of the late Col. T. A. Martin and to Mrs. Martin, and the Branch was able through voluntary subscriptions, to present to Mrs. Martin an inscribed Silver Salver as a token of their appreciation. A photograph taken at the presentation appears on this page. On behalf of the Ladies of the Branch, a bouquet of carnations was presented to Mrs. Martin by Mrs. Stead.

Saturday, December 17, was Kiddies' Day, when a total of 153 sat down to a splendid feast, followed by competitions and games. The highlight of the evening came when the spot-lights focussed the arrival of Father Christmas complete with sleigh laden with toys. Fortunately Charlie Meakins was known to only a few of the kiddies and remained unrecognised. The bumper Whist Drive was held on Wednesday, January 4, and this was another big success. Forty-three tables were in play and over fifty prizes to be won. Most of the prizes were donated by local tradesmen.

The Branch has been able to give financial assistance to many Old Comrades and members, and has been instrumental in getting extra assistance from the parent Association at Warley and from other Regimental Associations.

A date to remember is Saturday, October 21, when we shall have our Annual Reunion and Social this time at the Town Hall, Saffron Walden, to which we extend a cordial invitation to all Comrades of the three Associations.

BRENTWOOD

This Branch is still in existence although the numbers attending our social gatherings at the T.A. Centre, Chestnut Grove, Brentwood, are not increasing. However, we have been successful in obtaining two new members, and at our Annual General Meeting held in February it was decided that only two further meetings should be held this year as follows: Saturday, July 1, and Saturday, December 9. Both meetings will be at the T.A. Centre, Chestnut Grove, Brentwood, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Helen Martin, widow of the late Colonel T. A. Martin, M.B.E., receiving from Mr. S. A. Carter, the silver salver, presented to her by the Saffron Walden and District Branch of The Essex Regiment Association. Others in the group are—Major T. R. Stead and Mr. C. H. King.

Although the July meeting will take place only two weeks before the Annual Reunion, it is hoped that all members will attend so that some idea can be formed as to whether it will be worthwhile to hire a coach for the journey to Ilford on July 15.

METROPOLITAN, ESSEX

Branch membership has remained constant at 69 during the past few months. The members of the Executive Committee have been doing their best to increase numbers but, like all other organisations, we find difficulty in obtaining new members, due to there being so many other calls upon people's time. We are not depressed, however, and are still aiming at a round hundred members. Our members are apparently satisfied with the efforts of the Executive Committee because the whole committee was re-elected en bloc at the Annual General Meeting in January. Our Chairman, Col. H. Craig, O.B.E., T.D., D.L., had decided not to stand for re-election, but was prevailed upon to reconsider.

There is great interest in the Branch in the programme of events arranged for this year. The Secretary has already received several enquiries regarding the Annual Reunion and the Remembrance Service at Warley. One of our members, Mr. H. W. Harverson, who is most energetic in the Whips Cross Rifle Club, has arranged a programme of .303 shooting at Rainham Ranges during the year, and has invited members to take part in the various competitions.

The Branch was officially represented at the monthly service in the Regimental Chapel on May 7. Several members have been attending these services individually, but our Chairman felt that one service should be a Branch Service, and that of May 7 was chosen.

The Branch maintains contact with other Branches of the Association, and we were recently able to be of assistance to the Southend-on-Sea Branch.

ROMFORD AND DISTRICT

This Branch held its third annual dinner on Friday, February 24, 1960. The Commanding Officer, H.Q. 54th (East Anglian) Infantry Division, Coln., R.A.S.C. (T.A.), once again kindly gave permission for the Drill Hall, Upminster, to be used. The guest of honour was the Associate Colonel of the 3rd East Anglian Regiment, Brigadier C. M. Paton, C.V.O., C.B.E., D.L. The President invited members of the Branch to take tea with him at his home during the early part of the summer.

At a meeting afterwards the previous year's officers were re-elected.

SOUTHEND AND DISTRICT

Our Branch continues to meet on the first Friday in each month and mainly takes the form of a get-together at the bar, with a spot of darts and tombola. Through the efforts of that handful of keen, active "Pompadours" we have succeeded in signing on several new members. Our A.G.M. in December was well attended and our President, Brigadier G. Shenton, C.B.E., T.D., D.L., J.P., said he was delighted to see such a fine muster for such a small Branch. The following Officers and Committee were elected for 1961. Capt. Len Hammond (Chairman), Capt. A. E. Cooper (Treasurer), Mr. C. L. Dalton (Secretary). Committee: Major A. Saunders, Messrs. F. Alliker, D. Deer, A. Fiddes, H. Greenwood, W. Hardinge, C. Harrod and P. Laflin. Mr. C. Harrod and Mr. D. Deer were re-elected to the Entertainment's Sub-Committee, and have been joined by Major A. Saunders. At the February meeting Major T. R. Stead was elected Vice-President and we are indeed very pleased to have him.

On March 22 the Branch spent a very enjoyable evening as guests of the Ekco Social and Sports Club, and we are very grateful to them for the way they looked after us.

We are pleased to report that our first Secretary, Mr. Alf Smirk, is now holding the position of Vice-Chairman.

THE TWENTY-NINTH DIVISION ASSOCIATION

A parade for all members of the Association was held on the Horse Guards on Sunday, April 23, 1961. At 11.45 a.m. the parade marched to the Cenotaph, led by the Band of The Life Guards, and our President, General Lord Fryberg, v.c., placed a wreath in memory of all ranks of the 29th Division. Wreaths were also laid by representatives of other Units who wish to remember their own comrades.

Following the parade, lunch was taken at the Drill Hall of Westminster Dragoons and among the telegrams received was one from Her Majesty The Queen. The Annual General Meeting was then held. The steady decrease in the numbers of those attending is now very marked, but as this was our 46th Anniversary the average age of those who took part in the Gallipoli Landing must be about 70 years. On this occasion some 300 members attended the parade and 200 sat down to lunch. It is hoped that Her Majesty The Queen will be with us at our 50th Anniversary Parade in 1965.

The Essex Regiment members on parade, all of whom are most regular in their attendance, were as follows: Messrs. J. E. Tresadern, A. S. Perdeaux, A. E. Mount, A. E. Wiltshire, A. A. Pooley, A. H. Chapell, F. Vere, Westwood, A. E. Palmer and Major H. J. Staff.

Two members unable to be present owing to illness were Messrs. L. A. Platts, J. Saunders.

Our oldest member (a young 83) on parade was Mr. A. E. Wiltshire.

"ARRAS" DINNER, CHELMSFORD, APRIL 8, 1961

Continuing their series of reunion dinners a number of 1914-1918 members of "The Pompadours" met at Chelmsford on April 8. This gathering is held annually, as conveniently near as possible to the anniversary of the Arras battles of 1917 and 1918, when the 2nd Bn. The Essex Regiment were in action on the ground east of the capital of the Pas-de-Calais. The Pompadours suffered heavy casualties in both battles, their fighting strength being reduced to less than 100 all ranks on each occasion.

The Reunion gatherings were started in 1928, and apart from a break during the Second World War period, have been held each year since. Unfortunately numbers attending have gradually dwindled, and only 16 members were able to be present on this occasion. Many had written to say they were unable to make the journey. The chair was taken by ex-C.S.M. J. Carnall, D.C.M., Mr. Jack Finn, M.M., the Hon. Secretary of the Reunions announced that a visit to the old battlefields was being arranged for June of this year.

ENGAGEMENT

L.T. W. T. DODD AND MISS F. V. YOUNG

The engagement is announced between W. T. (Bill) Dodd, The 3rd East Anglian Regiment (16th/44th Foot), son of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. D. Dodd, of Dovercourt Bay, Essex, and Frances, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young, of Hampden Park, Eastbourne, Sussex.

THE REV'D. A. J. WILCOX, C.B.E.

We much regret to record the death of the Revd. A. J. Wilcox, which took place in London on June 6, 1960.

Padre Wilcox's connection with The Essex Regiment dated from 1924 when he was appointed Garrison Chaplain at Warley Barracks. His Chaplaincy proved a memorable one for the Regiment, for the then Garrison Chapel — which had Regimental connections as far back as 1873 — was on March 1, 1925, dedicated to The Essex Regiment by the Chaplain General, Bishop Taylor Smith. The Essex Regiment thus achieved the distinction of being the only line Regiment with a Chapel of its own. The Regiment will always be grateful to Padre Wilcox for his outstanding efforts in carrying through this great project, for it was in no small measure due to his energy and enthusiasm that it was successfully achieved. From that date until 1926, when he was appointed Chaplain to the Brigade of Guards at Wellington Barracks, he was largely responsible for initiating the detailed plans for the internal redecoration of the Chapel. These plans were in later years faithfully adhered to and may rightly be said to have led to the present beauty of the Chapel.

"A.J." as he was affectionately known by a wide circle of friends both within the Regiment and outside it, will be remembered for his many fine qualities — his wisdom, his constancy in friendship, and his great courage — so conspicuously shown throughout much suffering and pain in his last years. He was a great Christian and an inspiring example to all who knew him.

CAPTAIN W. J. DIXON

On October 8, 1960, at 498, Holdenhurst Road, Bournemouth, Capt. William James Dixon, aged 88. Capt. Dixon enlisted in the Bedfordshire Regiment in 1889, and attained the rank of Band Sergeant in 1898 when his Battalion was stationed in Dublin. He was a clever exponent of the clarinet, the instrument to which he particularly devoted himself. In 1899 on the outbreak of the South African war, the Battalion was ordered for service in that campaign. They embarked in December, Sgt. Dixon being among them and on arriving in South Africa proceeded up country at once being part of the then 6th Division, commanded by General Kelly Kenny. Sgt. Dixon took part in the sweeping engagements in the Northern part of Cape Colony, which finally led to the surrender by General Cronje, the famous Boer leader. The Division continued on to Bloemfontein with Lord Roberts. Sgt. Dixon served throughout the campaign and in 1903 was promoted Regimental Sergeant Major in recognition of his services.

The late Captain W. J. Dixon.

He was subsequently stationed in Gibraltar, Bermuda and was again in South Africa on the outbreak of the Great War. He embarked in 1914 for Zeebrugge with the 7th Division and took part in several of the earlier operations. On October 16, 1914, he was given commissioned rank for services in the field, and at Ypres on October 31 of that year was wounded. In 1915 he embarked for Mudros in the Grecian Archipelago for service with the Gallipoli Expeditionary Force and was appointed Staff Captain the same year. Subsequently in 1916 he proceeded with the Force to Egypt. In 1917 he went to Khartoum and was then attached to the British Mission with the King of the Hedjaz at Jeddah on the Red Sea. He retired in 1920.

Capt. Dixon was awarded the Order of the Nile by the Sultan of Egypt and the Order of El Nahda by the King of the Hedjaz.

During the 1939/45 War he served with the Home Guard.

BARTRIP.—On November 6, 1960. Mr. (ex-C.S.M.) P. W. Bartrip, joined the Essex Volunteers in 1890 and subsequently served with the Territorial Forces until 1918. He was a very keen supporter of all Regimental functions and an active member of The Eagle & Gun Regimental Association.

HARNIMAN.—On November 8, 1960. Mr. (ex-C.Q.M.S.) H. Harniman, served with 1/7th Bn. The Essex Regiment from 1908-1923. A very keen Association supporter, he was a founder member of The Eagle & Gun Regimental Association and was its Hon. Auditor until the time of his death.

Lt.-COL. A. E. MAITLAND, D.S.O., M.C.

We much regret to announce the death of Lt.-Col. A. E. Maitland, which occurred on November 17, 1960.

Lt.-Col. Maitland was born on November 21, 1890, and was appointed to a commission in The Essex Regiment on May 7, 1910. On the outbreak of the 1914-1918 War he went to France with the 2nd Battalion (Pompadours) and with the exception of a break of a few months in 1917 he served continuously in France and Belgium throughout the War. From August, 1914, he remained with the Pompadours until the latter part of 1916, and when Lt.-Col. L. O. W. Jones took over command early in 1915, he became Adjutant and then Second-in-Command. On the first day of the

The late Lt.-Col. A. E. Maitland, D.S.O., M.C.

Somme offensive, July 1, 1916, the Pompadours were in the Serre sector and suffered severe casualties. The C.O., Lt.-Col. Sir George Stirling, was wounded and Maitland assumed command for a short period. In October, 1916, he served for a few months with the London Regiment but rejoined the Pompadours in April, 1917. He left again in September to become Second-in-Command of 3/10th Bn. The Middlesex Regiment (T.F.) and subsequently served with the York and Lancs Regiment T.F. Battalion. February, 1918, saw his return to 2nd Essex and in May of that year he took over command from Lt.-Col. Thompson and continued in command until the end of the War. He won the Military Cross during the early fighting in France and was awarded the D.S.O. for his services in command of the Battalion. He was four times mentioned in despatches and comparatively few Regular Infantry Officers could have seen more service with fighting Units than did he.

After serving as Adjutant to the 2nd Battalion in Malta and Turkey during the years immediately following the War, Maitland was posted to the Regimental Depot, and it was during his tour there that the Garrison Chapel was dedicated as "The Essex Regiment Chapel." The Regiment owes a great debt of gratitude to him for his efforts in furthering this project. He was again at the Depot, this time in command, from October, 1929, until early in 1933, and in February, 1935, he took over command of the 1st Battalion from Lt.-Col. Wilmer in the Saar. He remained in command until the summer of 1936, when he retired owing to ill-health.

Lt.-Col. Maitland was prominent in any cause which advanced the Regiment and its welfare, and except for the last few years, when he was prevented by ill-health, he seldom missed a Regimental function.

MR. C. P. BLISS

It is with great regret we report the death of Cyril Price Bliss, who died suddenly in the Peace Memorial Hospital, Watford, on Friday, November 18, 1960, after a long period of suffering bravely borne. Cyril joined the Bedfordshire Regiment at Watford on August 26, 1914, and was posted to the 6th Battalion at Aldershot. He rose to the rank of Platoon Sergeant of "D" Company. He was wounded twice during the Battle of the Somme. After another spell in France he returned to England to take up a commission in the Northamptonshire Regiment on January 29, 1918. On his discharge he joined his father in his building business, which he carried on until his death. During the 1939/45 War he held a commission in the Bushey Home Guard.

The 6th Battalion O.C.A. was formed in 1929 and Cyril was one of the first members and was a very keen member

The funeral was at the Bushey Parish Church on Friday, November 25, 1960. Mr. J. Day attended, representing the Regimental Association and the 6th Battalion O.C.A., 1914/1918.

Cyril Bliss will be sadly missed by all members of the Regimental Association for his cheerful and charming manner and by his death the 6th Battalion (1914/1918) O.C.A. has lost a true and devoted friend.

COLONEL R. W. DALE, O.B.E., D.L.

We regret to announce the death of Col. R. W. Dale, O.B.E., D.L., which occurred on November 19, 1960.

Col. Dale was one of the earlier pioneers of the Army Cadet Force in Essex. He joined a Cadet Unit at Plaistow on the day of its formation in 1906, and apart from the First World War period, when he was on active service, has always been very closely associated with the Essex A.C.F. He eventually became County Cadet Commandant and retired in 1956. After his retirement, Col. Dale maintained a close connection with the Force which he knew and loved.

PAKES.—Mr. Arthur Pakes died on Monday, November 21, 1960. He served with the 1st/5th Bedfordshire Regiment at Gallipoli and at the time of his death was President of the "Yellow Devils" O.C.A. He was in the hat trade all his life and rose from office boy to managing director of his firm. Mr. Pakes was President of the South of England Hat Manufacturers' Association, a County Councillor and also a member of Luton Town Council.

The "Yellow Devils" were strongly represented at the funeral at Luton Parish Church, where many tributes were paid to his life of public service.

MAJOR H. W. ALDEN, M.C.

Died November 25, 1960.

Hugh Alden was born at Ferzepore, India, on April 21, 1921, and was educated at Brentwood School. He joined the Royal Fusiliers on September 20, 1939, and served with them until October, 1940, when he became a Cadet at the O.C.T.U. in the Isle of Man. He was commissioned in February, 1941, and gazetted to the Indian Army (17th Dogra Regiment). In March, 1941, he sailed for India in the S.S. "Britannia," but it was many months later that he finally reached his destination. On March 25 the "Britannia" was attacked and sunk in the South Atlantic by a German surface raider and Hugh was one of the survivors who spent many days in an open boat before being picked up by a Spanish merchant ship. He was eventually landed in Teneriffe, where for the next six months he was interned. He escaped from internment by joining a Naval party which commandeered a foreign freighter and sailed it to Gibraltar, whence he returned to England in a corvette. He again set out for India and in February, 1942, joined his Regiment in Jullunder and was re-united with his parents, who were serving in that station with the Royal Indian Army Service Corps.

He saw action on the Arakan and Imphal fronts as a Company Commander in 1st Bn. 17th Dogra Regiment and as a result of his gallantry during the period November 16, 1943, to May 15, 1944, he was awarded the Military Cross. His courage, determination and personal skill in the Arakan were again evident in an attack he led on the Nungshigum feature east of the Imphal Plain when on April 13, 1944, he led a bayonet attack on heavily defended Japanese positions and though severely wounded continued to command his Company until carried from the battlefield in an exhausted condition.

Just after the end of the War he was granted a Regular commission and gazetted to The Essex Regiment, joining the 1st Battalion in Southern India in 1947. He became Adjutant of the Battalion in May of that year and continued in that appointment until February, 1948, when after a short spell on the holding strength of the Depot he became Adjutant of the East Anglian Brigade Training Battalion. He served with the 1st Battalion again in 1953 in Germany and finally in January, 1958, to August, 1959, during which the amalgamation took place. In between Regimental Duty he served in various Staff appointments and the excellent work he did as D.A.A.G. (M.P.) at H.Q., Federation Army in 1956/7 did much to smooth the way for the formation of the new Malayan Army.

Though not appreciated at the time, the illness from which he died commenced in Dortmund in 1958/59. The odd and occasional headache was passed off lightly, but having returned with the

The late Major H. W. Alden, M.C.

Battalion to Warley he suffered a severe relapse from which he never recovered to full health. It is typical of the man, that in spite of his condition at the time, he took on the duties of a Grade 2 Staff Officer in the War Office Works Study Group during the last nine months of his life, a task which demanded considerable travelling and concentration, and which he carried out in his customary conscientious and efficient manner.

Hugh will be best remembered for his unfailing sense of humour, his undoubted ability on the hockey field and indeed in most sports, and the high esteem in which this cheerful personality was held by his brother officers and the men he commanded. It seems unjust that this young life should be cut off at a time when his Army career and his family affairs were reaping the benefits of his accomplishments, and to his widow, Audrey, we offer our most sincere sympathies and can assure her that his death will be felt in the Regiment for many, many years to come.

A Regular soldier for over 20 years, Mr. Goddard served with the 16th Foot in France during the First World War. The accompanying photograph shows him as so many of his friends in the Regiment will remember him, as Drum-Major of the 1st Battalion. He left the Army in 1926 and became a postman serving the whole of his time at the Luton Post Office until he retired 13 years ago. After leaving the Service, Mr. Goddard gave valuable assistance in the formation and training of both A.C.F. and A.T.C. Corps of Drums in Luton.

Mr. and Mrs. Goddard occupied the Regimental Cottage at Cheshunt in 1955, but had to relinquish their tenancy two years later owing to ill-health. Mrs. Goddard's death was

MAJOR L. I. BARFORD, T.D.

Barford, who created a record by being six times Mayor of Bedford. Major Barford was educated at Bedford School and Leeds University, where he took a degree in Colour Chemistry. His death occurred while he was addressing a meeting of the Society of Dyers and Colourists in London.

He served for many years with the 5th Bn. The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment (T.A.), in which he was appointed to a commission on June 30, 1926. In November of that year he carried the Regimental Colour when the 5th Battalion provided a Guard of Honour for the Prince of Wales, when His Royal Highness visited Luton to present new Colours to the 2nd Bn. The 16th Foot. In September, 1939, he joined the 6th Bn. Self Service for the Services

The conversion to self-service of hundreds of Naafi family shops at home and overseas has been a top-priority job. The success of the first experimental conversions was the incentive for an all-out drive to provide Service families with modern, attractive, carefully designed shops where shopping could be done quickly, efficiently and in comfort. Naafi prices are competitive too—with the extra incentive of a cash discount. You save when you pay at your Naafi shop. And now a whole new range of higher-priced goods, gifts and domestic appliances is available for cash or on the exceptionally favourable terms of Naafi's own instalment credit scheme. Ask your shop manager for details.

MAJOR W. W. WAGSTAFF

It is with sincere regret we announce the death of Major W. W. Wagstaff which took place in Surbiton Hospital on February 23, 1961.

Born at Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, on June 23, 1888, Major Wagstaff was educated at Berkhamsted School and was appointed to a commission in The Bedfordshire Regiment on October 14, 1908. He joined the 1st Battalion at Colchester. Soon afterwards he qualified with distinction at The Army School of Signals and was appointed Battalion Signal Officer. He went out to France with the Battalion in August 1914 and his excellent knowledge of French proved to be a great asset. While his platoon was withdrawing during the Battle of Le Cateau on August 26, 1914, Major Wagstaff, who was the last to leave the trench, was wounded in the thigh and was only able to crawl. He refused all help as he was anxious that his men should get safely away, and sent a message by a non-commissioned officer to say that he was all-right and would make his own way back. In spite of attempts to locate him, he was not picked up, as he had crawled, not in the direction of Paris, as he supposed, but in the direction of Berlin, and was captured. He spent the rest of the war as a prisoner in various camps in Germany and eventually was transferred to Holland and repatriated with the first batch at the end of the war. He had been promoted Captain on December 15, 1914. He rejoined the 1st Battalion but after a short period left to take up a Staff appointment at The War Office. He then held various appointments until 1924 when he passed into The Staff College, Camberley. He was promoted Major on July 14, 1926. After a brief tour of regimental duty, on passing out the Staff College, he was appointed D.A.Q.M.G. Shanghai Defence Force in January 1927, G.S.O., W.T. Northern Command, York, January 1929.

In 1933, after twenty-four and a half years' service, he retired. Since his retirement he held the following appointments—with The Scottish Provident Life Assurance Co. 1933-1940; Deputy Divisional Food Officer, London 1940-

The late Major W. W. Wagstaff.

1945; Languages Master at Preparatory Schools, Wallington and Surbiton, from 1946 until five days before his death.

After his retirement he continued to take a great interest in The Regiment which he had served so well.

The funeral service was held at The Putney Vale Crematorium on February 28 and Major D. T. Tewkesbury represented The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment Association.
